Pastor's Column: So far, it has been a great blessing being your new pastor here at this wonderful parish! Everyone seems so energetic, helpful and sincere.

The Liturgical readings this Sunday seem to focus us on preparing for death. Whenever I think of this topic, I think of Sister Theresa Alethia Noble, FSP. She has written at least one book on the topic—i.e. Remember Your Death: Memento Mori Lenten Devotional. It's not my favorite topic, but I thought I would point you in the direction of someone who really has something to say about it.

The attendance at All Souls Day Mass on Monday was very impressive! At that Mass, I asked the people if they would attend a regular 7pm Mass if it were offered on Mondays. Many people raised their hands. ***Therefore, starting this November 9, the daily Mass time for Mondays will be 7pm. We'll see in the coming months how well this works. This particular Mass will benefit those who work regular 9-5 jobs and would like to come to daily Mass. May God bless you!

The absolute deadline to have your sub orders and raffle tickets to the Parish Office is this Sun. Nov. 8th, the order will be called in Mon. morning. For more information contact Marsha 717-637-7833 or Nancy at 717-259-6624.

Please note: if you would like to designate flowers on the main or side Altars the book is no longer in the back of Church. Please contact the Parish Office at 717-637-2721 to schedule flowers for a weekend.

A Prayer for AFTER the Election

Healer of our every ill, breathe in and among all of us who dwell in this land. Soothe our wounds. Calm our fears. Mend our divisions. Hope of All tomorrow, open our deaf ears and fill us with compassion. Tender our hearts. Inspire creative ideas to address the cries of our sisters, brothers and Earth itself. Send forth your Spirit of love and unity. Transform pointed fingers of blame into hands open in reverence to receive one another. Fan into flame the gift of our founding and let us be known again as a people United for the goodness, justice and peace of all people forever. Amen
