My Godfather and Uncle—Mark Schlaline

On June 4, my godfather and uncle, Mark Schlaline (57 years old), died after a 7-year battle with colon cancer. When he first received his diagnosis, the doctors did not expect that he would live 7 more years. But he did. God answered many prayers. I am grateful to Uncle Mark for the many ways he cared for me- especially when I was growing up. He was more than humorous and could always make us laugh. I will be traveling to California soon to celebrate his funeral Mass and burial on July 9. That will be a very sad moment for all of us who knew Uncle Mark. Since not everyone will be able to go to California for the funeral, we will also have a special Memorial Mass for Uncle Mark here at the Church in which he was baptized:
