Twenty-eighth Sunday of Ordinary Time

Preparing for the Next Life

After the moment of your death, when you find yourself standing before the pearly gates, Saint Peter may ask you this: "Why should I let you into Heaven?" A word of advice: DO NOT say "Because I am a good person." Don't even think it! "Who is good but God alone?" The right answer is this: "Because Jesus Christ died for my sins." Don't just say the correct answer-- believe it! Don't forget! No one is good, but God alone (Mark 10:18).
