World Mission Sunday

Please place your World Mission Sunday contribution in the collection basket either time the basket is passed. As long as it is clearly marked for World Mission Sunday, it will go to the correct place. (We no longer pass the basket a third time on Sundays like today).

Thank you!

Dear Conewago Chapel family, the Evergreene workers finished up the project of the refurbishing the altars this past Tuesday. Thank you so much for making this project a success! Your contributions to our Parish are appreciated and vital to continue our mission of proclaiming the kingdom of God for the salvation of souls.

--Fr. Dwight Schlaline

Our Sacristan Sandy Timmins would like to thank everyone who has helped her over these many weeks, while Evergreene was here restoring the Altars and taking down or putting up the paintings. There were many tasks and inconveniences during this time, but thanks to your dedication to the Parish it all went well.

Respect Life & Politicians

Every Catholic is a missionary of the Good News of human dignity redeemed through the cross. While our personal vocation may determine the form and style of our witness, Jesus calls each of us to be a leaven in society, and we will be judged by our actions. No one, least of all someone who exercises leadership in society, can rightfully claim to share fully and practically the Catholic faith yet act publicly in a way contrary to that faith" (US Bishops, Living the Gospel of Life, 1998, n.7).

Thank you to those who have advertised on the Bulletin. All of the proceeds go directly to the Parish. This week we thank Miller Hanover Insurance for their advertisement.

Attention Lectors! If you would like a copy of the upcoming new Workbook for Lectors, please contact the Parish Office at 717-637-2721 no later than Oct. 31st! The order needs to be placed for the books soon! If you would like to become a Lector also contact the Parish Office at the number above.
