FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 6:1-2a, 3-8

Isaiah recounts the awe he felt the first time he saw the Lord, who was surrounded by angels. He began to feel despair because he was a man of unclean lips, until an angel touched an ember to his lips and pronounced them clean. The Lord asked who he should send forth, to which Isaiah replied, "Here I am, send me!"

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:1-11

Paul reminds the Corinthians that Christ died for us to free us from our sins. He encourages them to remember the importance of Jesus' death and resurrection. He admits that he initially failed to believe, and therefore was very grateful to be called an apostle and preach in the name of Christ.

Gospel: Luke 5:1-11

Luke tells of Jesus preaching to a crowd, then joining Peter who was about to end a fruitless day of fishing. He told Peter to lower his net back in, and a great number of fish were caught. Upon seeing this, Peter and his companions, James and John, immediately abandoned their nets to follow Jesus.

SUNDAY: SEE YOU IN CHURCH

*Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes
February 11*

The message of Lourdes is the Gospel message. In all of the conversations between Our Lady and Bernadette at Massabielle, Mary calls humanity to rediscover the Good News that God loves and cares for us. No matter who we are, Christ is there for us. So it is not surprising that through the years, Lourdes has often become synonymous with the physically sick. At the grotto, there is a message of great hope and consolation for the sick and the handicapped. There have been well-documented miraculous cures. So on this feast, we should pray for physical healing. That is an act of faith in a Jesus who came “to save the lost and the sick.” However, the message of Lourdes goes far beyond physical healing. Our Lady brings about in us a healing of the heart, where Jesus most wants to touch us all.
