SUNDAY: SEE YOU IN CHURCH

PENTECOST SUNDAY

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

The disciples were celebrating Pentecost together when "tongues of fire appeared which parted, then came to rest on each of them." The disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in foreign tongues. Visitors from many different countries were amazed that each guest could hear his or her native language being spoken as the disciples proclaimed God's glory.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Each person has received different manifestations of the same spirit to contribute to the common good of all. All members of the church have been baptized into one body because of our belief in the Holy Spirit, who was sent to us by God.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

Jesus appeared to the disciples even though they had locked the doors in fear. Jesus then showed the disciples his hands and his side; and they rejoiced at his presence. He breathed on them saying "Receive the Holy Spirit." He then gave the disciples the power to forgive others or hold them accountable for their sins.

Invitation to join a volunteer ministry –
Committee of Black Ministry

The Committee of Black Ministry is an offshoot of the Archdiocese of New York Office of Black Ministry founded in 1976. As members of this diverse community of faith the COBM strives to promote the presence and aspirations of Black Catholics with an emphasis on evangelization. We encourage all to participate in our spiritual, cultural, & social activities and to worship with us and celebrate the Good News. We attend Mass September through June. We meet in the Church lobby at 8:30 AM. Immediately after Mass we gather in FWH for our meeting. All are welcome to join, worship with us and to celebrate the good news. St. Josephine Bakhita, Venerable Pierre Toussaint, pray for us.

Music at the 11:30 Mass

Pentecost Sunday celebrates the gift of the Holy Spirit and the birth of the Church. Despite our diversity, we are united in our faith. At the 11:30 Mass today the schola will sing most of the Propers in Latin, the official language of the Church. These Propers include the Introit and Sequence, sung in Gregorian chant and the Offertory and Communion antiphons in polyphonic settings by Antonio Salieri and Constanzo Festa. The Ordinary of the Mass is drawn from the Missa de Angelis and Antonio Lotti's Mass in the First Mode. The Propers are the appointed texts for the day; the Ordinary remains the same every day.

Introit: The Spirit of the Lord has filled the whole world, alleluia; and that which contains all things has knowledge of the voice, alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Offertory: Confirm, O God, that which you have accomplished in our midst; from your temple which is in Jerusalem, kings shall offer presents to you, alleluia.

Communion: Suddenly a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, in the place where they were sitting, alleluia; and they were filled with the Holy Spirit, and announced the great things God had done, alleluia alleluia.
