TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Sirach 3:17-18, 20, 28-29

Those who are humble will find favor with God. Everyone should realize that there is much we can learn from each other. Even the most knowledgeable people need to be humble enough to know that they can still learn from others.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24a

The Hebrews are informed that they are not approaching an untouchable mountain etched with gloom and fear. Rather, they have neared "the city of the living God, Jerusalem." The Hebrews have approached a joyful gathering of angels, God our judge, and Jesus, who brought us a new covenant.

Gospel: Luke 14:1, 7-14

Jesus went to share a meal with one of the leading Pharisees when he noticed other guests competing for places of honor at the table. He warned that a guest who takes the place of honor may be asked to move to the lowest place. Yet a guest who takes the lowest place is honored when a better position is offered by their host. He then added, "He who humbles himself will be exalted."

The Rectory will be closed Sept. 2 for Labor Day.

From the Office of the Vicar-General

The archdiocesan lay review board has found credible and substantiated allegations of sexual abuse of a minor made against Father Donald Timone.

In keeping with the policy of the Archdiocese of New York, and the promises made by the Bishops of the United States in the Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People, his ability to function as a priest has been removed; in fact he has not been permitted to function as a priest since December 2018.

Father Timone served here at Holy Rosary/Nativity of Our Blessed Lady as parochial vicar from September 17, 1960 to June 1965. The Archdiocese of New York is notifying all of Fr. Timone's former assignments of this allegation, and requesting that if you have information or concerns about Fr. Timone that you contact the district attorney; you may also contact the victims assistance coordinator at victimsassistance@archny.org or 646-794-2949
