 - A new volleyball net will cost $1,200. It will be purchased for next year.
 - Mr. & Mrs. Dowd volunteered to coach volleyball.
- (d) Gala – Gina Nelson & Joy Al-Jarawi
- (e) Advancement – Alana Kocich
 - A coordinator will survey the project to move the elementary school playground to the middle school playground area. The area will be fenced and have a new play set for children ages 3-5 years and a new exercise and agility area for children ages 6-12 years. Options for awnings and ground covering are being considered. We will apply for grants to match our spending.
 - We will apply for a Kenedy grant for Chrome Books.
- (h) Home Room Parent Coordinator
 - Julie Franks and Ana Barillas volunteered to share the position. They are scheduled to meet with Fr. Orrin and Mrs. Bradford next week, after which they will meet with Home Room Parents.
- (i) Principal – Mrs. Bradford
 - Students are not allowed outside or in the gym during PTC meetings. Middle school students may volunteer and earn service hours as babysitters in the cafeteria foyer during meetings.

- Cell phone use is not permitted in carpool. Car seats/booster seats for young children are required.
- There are new School Board committee heads. Committee members are needed.
- Please tie HRCS to your Amazon Smile purchases.
- Please tie HRCS to your Kroger purchases.
- Items depicting your child's school artwork are for sale at artsonia.com. Artsonia donates 20% of HRCS purchases to the school.
- 8th grade is selling poinsettias for $15 through September to raise money for graduation. Poinsettias will be delivered and distributed on December 11th via drive-thru at the parish hall during afternoon carpool.
- Please collect Box Tops. There is a new form for this fundraiser.
- Please support Spirit Nights at local restaurants.

(j) President – Kevin New

IV Old Business

V New Business

(a) Fort Bend County Parade Float

- HRCS will not have a float in the Fort Bend County Parade this year. A truck and trailer were offered by a parent; however, no one volunteered to decorate the float.

(b) Fall Fundraiser - Halloween Carnival

- Sponsor forms will be in Tuesday folders. A parent asked if the word "catholic" could be removed from the sponsorship form to get companies, who cannot support religious groups, to sponsor the carnival. Mrs. Bradford will address the issue.
- Alumni may volunteer in the haunted house until soccer players arrive after the away soccer game on the night of the carnival.
- Halloween Carnival booths: Novelty Toy Spin (PreK3); Spiderweb Spin (PreK4); Bounce House (kinder); Animal Spin (1st grade); Ring Toss (2nd grade); Cake Spin (3rd grade); Mini Golf (4th grade); Cookie Walk (5th grade); BINGO (6th grade); Concessions & BBQ pit (7th grade); Haunted House (8th grade); Dessert Table (PTC Officers); Tank's Paintball; Ferris Wheel
- This year "Pumpkin Wars" will replace "Mummy Money" as a class fundraiser competition in October. Students may donate money in their classroom pumpkin. Students may place quarters in pumpkins in other classrooms to negate the amount in the pumpkin.

VI Questions/Comments

- A parent reported there have been occasions of no monitor being present at the middle school morning carpool. Mrs. Bradford will address the issue. Junior High students may earn service hours by assisting teachers during morning carpool.

- A parent requested the monthly calendar and News Letter be printed and set home via Tuesday folders instead of being available only on-line.
- A parent asked for a sign-up genius to be established for each teacher's classroom donation requests.
- A parent requested this year's PTC budget be put on the school's website.

VII Drawings & Class count

- Mr. Akbar won the parent gift card.
- Mrs. Mican won the teacher gift card.
- 2nd grade won the $25 pizza party.

VIII Adjourn

- Motion to adjourn the meeting 1st Kristi Carter, 2nd Elizabeth Morales.
