A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Thus says the Lord: ‘You shall not molest or oppress the alien, for you were once alien yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry... If he cries out to me, I will hear him, for I am compassionate.’”

From the earliest pages of the bible, concern for aliens, widows and orphans were a priority. In the Acts of the Apostles, the life of the first Christians, the same vulnerable persons were addressed, leading to the vocation of the first deacons. Today we seem to overlook the helplessness of refugees, those fleeing war, poverty and famine. How many persons have been forced to leave home, family in search of freedom and humane conditions. Unfortunately they seem only to be a statistic. People do not want to leave their land and their family to live in camps with oppressive heat, little food and unhealthy conditions. They are forced to do so fleeing cartels and gangs. In the United States years ago, they were called DP’s, and displaced persons were looking for a welcome and harbor was given to them. As we read the book of Moses today, take a moment to consider the plight of those who are calling out to us. They are the very ones the Lord will listen to, and we are the ones called by Him to answer.

WELCOME TO OUR PARISH FAMILY!

We would like to give a big warm welcome to Father Misael Jaramillo who will be officially starting here at our parish on Wednesday, November 1st, 2017 as our new parochial vicar.

UNA FRESCA PERSPECTIVA DE LAS LECTURAS DOMINICALES SU PALABRA HOY por el Reverendo William J. Reilly

“No maltratarás al extranjero ni lo oprimirás, porque ustedes fueron extranjeros en Egipto. No harás daño a la viuda ni al huérfano. Si les haces daño y ellos me piden auxilio, yo escucharé su clamor... Y si él me invoca, yo lo escucharé, porque soy compasivo.”

Desde las primeras páginas de la biblia, la preocupación por los extranjeros, viudas y huérfanos era una prioridad. En los Hechos de los Apóstoles, la vida de los primeros cristianos, las mismas personas vulnerables fueron atendidas, culminando en la vocación de los primeros diáconos. Hoy parecíamos desatender la impotencia de los refugiados, gente huyendo de las guerras, pobreza y hambre. Cuántas personas se han visto forzadas a abandonar su hogar y familia en busca de libertad y condiciones humanas. Desafortunadamente parecieran ser sólo una estadística. La gente no desea dejar su tierra y familia para vivir en campamentos con calor opresivo, poca comida y malas condiciones de salud. Se ven forzados a huir de carteles y pandillas. Hace años, en los Estados Unidos, a esta gente se les llamaba ‘personas desplazadas’ buscando ser bienvenidas y refugiadas. Al leer el libro de Moisés hoy, tómese un momento para considerar la terrible situación de aquellos que nos piden ayuda. Estos son aquellos a quienes el Señor escuchará, y nosotros somos los llamados por El para responder.
