

Discipleship Week
June 24-28, 2020
CODE OF BEHAVIOR

Welcome to Discipleship Week! We are glad that you will be sharing this experience with us at Assumption College in Worcester, MA. We know that you will represent your parish/school well during the 5 days at Discipleship Week. We expect that you will display mature and responsible leadership during your stay at Assumption College.

We want you to know what our expectations are for you during your stay. Please read these items over carefully. They have been crafted in light of our experience with overnight accommodations over the past several years. We believe that these rules will ensure that your stay will be enjoyable and profitable for all. Please note that all participants staying at Assumption College for Discipleship Week will be expected to live by these regulations during Discipleship Week.

Some Rules:

1. Individuals are responsible for their actions. Each participant or parent/guardian will take full responsibility for any damage or theft done by members of their group during their time at Assumption College.
2. Adult team members and participants will be expected to help implement this code of behavior. Teen participants should respect these adults as they fulfill their role.
3. Participants are expected to attend all activities during Discipleship Week.
4. No visiting is allowed in rooms by members of the opposite sex.
5. All participants must stay in their respective rooms during the hours assigned for sleep.
6. The purchase, possession, or consumption of any alcoholic beverage and the possession or use of any illegal drugs by any teen participant will not be tolerated. Any infraction of these rules will mean immediate dismissal from the Discipleship Week at parents' or guardians' expense.
7. Whenever the schedule calls for small group activities, each participant must be with the leader(s) and members of his or her small group.
8. All participants will be expected to observe the rules of Assumption College which relate to the use of that facility.
9. In the unlikely event that a behavior problem, based on the above, requires extreme action, it is likely that immediate dismissal from the program will result.
10. All Protecting God's Children guidelines should be observed throughout the duration of this event.

As a member of my school or parish, I understand and agree to abide by the Code of Behavior. I also understand and agree that I will notify my parent(s) or guardian(s) at the time of any infractions requiring my dismissal from Discipleship Week. In that circumstance, I understand and agree that I will be sent home at my own or my parents' or my guardians' expense.
