BAPTISM PREPARATION
Prospective parents should call the Rectory no later than the sixth month of pregnancy to begin the process of preparing for their child’s baptism. Necessary information will be given at that time. The Baptism Class is mandatory for first time parents. Call 337-1660, ext. 133.

MATRIMONY
Since Catholic marriage requires a time of preparation, the couple should begin arrangements at least six months before the proposed date of the wedding. Parishioners who are registered and participating can make arrangements of date and time only after speaking with one of the parish priests.

NEW PARISHIONERS
You are requested to come to the Rectory to register.

SICK CALLS / HOMEBOUND EUCHARISTIC VISITS

A Note from Fr. O’Dowd in Nicaragua

“Dear Friends in Christ,
I am delighted to take this opportunity to thank all of you for the incredibly generous Lenten sacrifices and collections which you made for the benefit of our children, school and parish here in Managua, Nicaragua. Due to the very harsh political and economic reality we are suffering here, your kindness has been a true blessing for many of our poorest kids and families who we are blessed to assist thanks to your goodness.
In their name and my own, I thank you from the bottom of my heart and ask the Lord to reward each and every one of you with His richest graces and blessings.
Please keep us in your kind prayers as we will you,
In the Agonizing Christ,
Father Aurelian O’Dowd
Pastor and Principal “

SEASON OF ORDINARY TIME

“Our Church is back in Ordinary Time, but every day is extraordinary, a gift from God, and can be an outburst of God’s Grace and Mercy.”
Timothy Cardinal Dolan

OUR NEW MUSIC DIRECTOR:

I am very happy to announce that after 5 months of searching, we have a new Director of Music.
Our new Director is Mr. David Tisbert. He is a fine church organist, accomplished concert organist, conductor and tenor.
David holds music degrees in Vocal and Piano Performance and Sacred Choral Music from the Boston Conservatory of Music. He has worked in churches in New Jersey, Connecticut, and Vermont. He was the Music Director for 20 years at the Church of St Thomas the Apostle in Oak Ridge, NJ.
Mr. Tisbert has an extensive repertoire of organ concerts and vocal performances in both sacred and operatic music.

Mr. Tisbert will begin here at St Joseph’s on July 1st.
Please join me in warmly welcoming him to our parish.

I also want to thank Fr Anthony Sorgie and Fr Richard Marano---both accomplished musicians---who helped in the selection process.

Thanks also to Mr Christopher Reilly who has helped our parish and choir immeasurably during this interim period of transition.

Fr Peter

PRAYER FOR SUMMER

Father, creator of all,
Thank you for summer!
Thank you for the warmth of the sun and the increased daylight. Thank you for the beauty I see all around me and for the opportunity to be outside and enjoy your creation, Thank you for the increased time I have to be with my friends and family, and for the more casual pace of the summer season. Draw me closer to you this summer. Teach me how I can pray no matter where I am or what I am doing. Warm my soul with the awareness of your presence and light my path with your word and counsel. As I enjoy your creation, create in me a pure heart and a hunger and a thirst for you.
Amen.

H.O.P.E. Collections

“Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?’ Jesus said to him, what is written in the law? How do you read it?’...You shall love…and your neighbor as yourself.’ He replied to him, ‘You have answered correctly; do this and you will live.’ And because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, ‘and who is my neighbor?’ Jesus replied… a man…”

The story of the good Samaritan is one of the clearest teaching moments of Jesus, as He used the two first testament books to describe the only way one can love God is through love of neighbor. Perhaps I am like the scholar of the law, thinking that I am in pretty good shape, as I pray, honor God and try to do the right thing. But wait a minute. Do I dare ask ‘who is my neighbor’ without fearing the consequences?

Pope Francis has called us to see the face of Christ in those who ask our help, who need our assistance. He asks two things: that we recognize the Christ in people who come to us, and to reflect the face of Christ to those who approach us. The parable ends with the scholar, unable to describe the unnamed Samaritan, saying the neighbor was the one treated him with compassion. He was told, go and do likewise. Think today of one person or group who are looking for the good Samaritan. Do they find him in you?

<td>The theme of love in our Gospel today recalls an old favorite hymn by Charles Wesley, 1707-1788 “Love Divine All Loves Excelling”. The idea of the hymn was taken from a popular song by poet Dryden, “Fairest isle, all isles excelling”. Its theme is the great thread of divine love which runs through all of Wesley’s hymns. After a prayer addressed to Christ to dwell within our lives, the hymn turns to the theme of sanctification – God’s “great salvation” is sufficient to deliver a Christian from the power as well as from the guilt of sin (2 Corinthians 5:17). Thus we are “going on to perfection”, being “changed from glory into glory” (2 Corinthians 3:18)</td>
