JULY - Month of the Most Precious Blood

Eternal Father, I offer You the Most Precious Blood of Jesus Christ, the merits, love and suffering of His Sacred Heart, and the tears and sorrows of our Immaculate Mother, as the price of the favor I wish to obtain from Your infinite goodness. Amen.

HOLY MASS, THE INFINITE TREASURE

All the honor that Angels and men have ever given to God cannot give Him as much glory as a single Mass.

--St. Alphonsus Maria de Liguori

All of Heaven bends down to attend the humblest of Masses

--St. John Marie Vianney

A Christian increases his merits for eternal life each time he attends Mass with devotion.

--Our Lord to St. Gertrude

What you do not obtain during Mass will be difficult to obtain at another moment.

--St. John Chrysostom

Without the Mass, what would become of us? We would all perish, for it alone holds back the arm of God.

--St. Teresa of Avila

AIR CONDITIONING COLLECTION

There will be a special second collection TODAY to help cover the air conditioning expenses. Holy Innocents is fortunate to have air conditioning during the hot summer months. With the air conditioner running all day for over 12 hours, the electric bills are very high during this period.

It is hoped that this collection will help to alleviate those bills. Please be generous as it is for your comfort.

SHRINE OF ST. ANNE-DE-BEAUPRE

The Shrine of Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupré, located only 20 minutes outside of Québec City, is the second oldest pilgrimage site in North America. Dedicated to Saint Anne, the grandmother of Jesus Christ, the shrine welcomes nearly one million visitors annually from all around the world.

Through the splendour of a sacred site that is rich with 350 years of history, the Shrine of Sainte-Anne-de-Beaupré is the epitome of the Christian people's faith and the welcome of all races, beliefs and conditions. Discover the shrine's extraordinary history through its paintings, mosaics, stained-glass windows, and stone and wooden sculptures, and learn about the role it continues to play in our people's faith.

The Basilica is a shrine dedicated to Saint Anne. Even if we know very little about the life of Saint Anne, the simple fact of being the mother of Mary and the grandmother of Jesus is sufficient for the Church to recognize and venerate her for centuries.

The entire ceiling mosaic of the Basilica describes the life of Saint Anne. It tells the story of her life, the life of a Jewish woman in that era. It speaks of her virtues and glorification.

The shrine has in its possession three notable relics. The first relic (a portion of the bone of Saint Anne's finger) was obtained by the Carcassonne Chapter and brought to the shrine on March 12, 1670 by Bishop François de Laval.

The first major relic arrived at the shrine on July 26, 1892, as a gift from Pope Leo XIII. It is a 4-inch portion of the bone of Saint Anne's forearm. It was obtained from the Basilica of Saint Paul Outside the Walls, in Rome, and was brought to Saint-Anne-de-Beaupré by Bishop Joseph-Calixte Canac-Marquis (1821-1904). Finally, on July 3, 1960, another major relic of Saint Anne (also from her forearm) was brought to the shrine from the Basilica of Saint Paul Outside the Walls; this time, it was a gift from Blessed Pope John XXIII.

The Basilica was built in Romanesque Revival style and in the shape of a cross. It stands 100 meters high, from the floor up to the top of the bell towers. It is approximately 60 meters wide at the transept crossing and 50 meters at the façade. The building spans about 100 meters in length.

The tympanic, the bas-relief of the façade, shows Saint Anne in all her glory. At her feet and on either side is a long frieze that shows important moments in the history of our devotion, which represents the entire history of Québec's society. Just above the tympanic, the Angel of the Pilgrim watches over the thousands of faithful followers who come to visit Saint Anne each year. Above, the 12 Apostles surround the large rose window.

Finally, several statues decorate the façade, including Mary, Joachim, John the Baptist, Bishop François de Laval and Mary of the Incarnation—all masterpieces of the Québec sculptor, Émile Brunet.

The main doors of the Basilica, created by the artist Albert Gilles, are hand-made of copper and present the many scenes of the life of Jesus.

At the pinnacle, between the two bell towers, you can find the statue of Saint Anne, which was saved from the destructive fire of the first Basilica in 1922.

HISTORY

1658: First chapel

During the construction of the chapel, a healing occurred. Louis Guimont was miraculously healed from his excruciating back pain. This is the first of many testimonials of healings and favors obtained.

1661-1676: Second church

Built out of stone and wood, the second church was erected more to the east, where the old cemetery is now located.

1676 -1876: Third church

This stone church was used for worship for over two centuries. It was demolished in 1878. The commemorative chapel was constructed on the foundations of its transept.

1876 -1922: First Basilica

In 1876, Saint Anne is proclaimed the patron saint of Québec. A fourth church was opened for worship. On March 29, 1922, a fire tragically destroyed the Basilica.

1923 to today:

After the fire, construction began for the present-day Basilica. The architecture was inspired by splendid Roman-style cathedrals. Cardinal Maurice Roy consecrated the Basilica on July 4, 1976.

St. Anne statues, chaplets, medals, holy cards & Oil from Beaupre are available in the Gift Shop in the Parish Office

REFLECTION FROM CATHERINE DOHERTY

We Are the Dispossessed

I am, as most of my friends know, a fool for Christ's sake, and also one of the humiliate which means the dispossessed, the forgotten, the unrecognized, the rejected.

Would you like to meet the humiliate? Go to an old people's home, where thousands of mothers and fathers are forgotten, unvisited, uncared for. It is not difficult to do that. And it is not difficult to be a fool for Christ's sake and to try to penetrate the seemingly impenetrable greed and selfishness of such places.

Do you have the courage to go into racially mixed neighborhoods or the neighborhoods of the poor? Yes, it takes courage to go there. Not because you are going to see the poverty that perhaps you have read about in the papers or in a book. It takes courage to enter. It takes courage to knock at the door. Who am I, who are you, that we dare to enter the "Holy of Holies" that Christ loved so much? He was always with the poor.

Yes, it takes courage to go there. But a fool for Christ's sake can go anywhere, because people will laugh at him and will let him in. That is the joy of being a fool for Christ's sake, and one of the humiliate, one of the despised, forgotten, neglected.

MASS TIMES

A vacation from God is never taken. When traveling and preparing trips and vacations, do not forget to find the local church where you will be staying and attend Holy Mass there. Much effort is put into finding the perfect hotel, restaurants and recreational activities. How much effort is put into finding a church? Remember, it is a mortal sin to miss Holy Mass on a Sunday or Holy Day of Obligation and traveling does not dispense one from the Sunday Mass obligation! The following website will help you in finding a church while on vacation: www.masstimes.org

The purpose of the Mass Times ministry is to help Catholics get to Mass by helping them find churches and worship times worldwide by easily providing worship times, church locations, contact information, website links and maps.

HOLY INNOCENTS BOOKSHELF

The Catholic Church and the Bible

By. Rev. Peter M. J. Stravinskias

The third edition of a very popular work, which highlights the Biblical roots of Catholic doctrine and liturgy.

This book demonstrates that the Catholic Church is the Bible-Based church.

Available in the Bookstore in the Parish Office

HOLY INNOCENTS ROSARY

Holy Innocents is proud to introduce our own custom made Rosary by Ghirelli Rosaries in Italy. The beautiful, high quality Rosary is comprised of red Mother of Pearl lucite beads representing the blood shed by the Holy Innocents, Martyrs. The metal used is in antique silver finish. The crucifix is designed after the highly venerated "Return Crucifix" and is inscribed with "Shrine & Parish Church of the Holy Innocents New York City" on the back. The centerpiece features Our Mother of Perpetual Help and the façade of our beautiful church with the year of establishment. The Our Father medals feature representations of the most beloved devotions here at Holy Innocents and are modeled after the images in the church: the Tridentine Latin Mass, the Infant of Prague, the unborn represented by Our Lady of Guadalupe, and St. Anthony of Padua. On the backs of those medals is an image of a candle representing the many Vigil Lights lit here over the years. Each Rosary comes in a beautiful full color custom gift box and the price per Rosary is $40.00 plus sales tax. Stop by the Parish Office to see a sample of this one-of-a-kind Rosary exclusive to Holy Innocents.

MODESTY IN DRESS

Now that the warm weather is upon us, out of respect for Our Lord and for the edification of our neighbors, we ask that men and women, boys and girls appear in church modestly and respectfully dressed. Shorts, t-shirts, tank tops, halter tops, bare midriffs, strapless, off-the-shoulder, backless or low-cut dresses/tops or tight fitting clothes, beachwear do not fit the norm of Christian modesty or respect. Do not be an occasion of sin for someone else! Your cooperation is evidence of your love for Our Lord and for His Most Holy Mother and is greatly appreciated.

The Shrine to the Unborn

Blessed by Cardinal O'Connor on December 28, 1993

*The Shrine is dedicated in Memory of the Children
Who Have Died Unborn*

*We invite you to name your child(ren)
and provide the opportunity to have your baby's name inscribed in our "Book of Life".*

Often children who have died before birth have no grave or headstone, and sometimes not even a name. At The Church of The Holy Innocents, we invite you to name your child(ren) and to have the opportunity to have your baby's name inscribed in our "BOOK OF LIFE". Here, a candle is always lit in their memory. All day long people stop to pray. On the first Monday of every month, our 12:15pm Mass is celebrated in honor of these children and for the comfort of their families. We pray that you will find peace in knowing that your child(ren) will be remembered at the Shrine and honored by all who pray here.

We will inscribe the names of babies who have died before and at birth in our Book of Life, and as always, we invite you to visit the Shrine if you are in New York City.

SUBWAY ROSARY

Our Regina Mundi Praesidium of the Legion of Mary conducts a Subway Rosary on the second and fourth Saturdays of the month. All are invited to join in this evangelization effort to spread devotion to Our Lady. Anyone interested in joining is asked to gather at Holy Innocents by 10:00 a.m. The group will then proceed to either Herald Square, Duffy Square, or a subway station for the recitation of the 20 decades of the Holy Rosary and return back to Holy Innocents around 12:30 p.m. Come for all or part of the Subway Rosary!

Upcoming Subway Rosaries
