SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 8:5-8, 14-17

Philip preaches to the people of Samaria, who accept his word after witnessing the miracles he performs.

Peter and John pray that they will receive the Holy Spirit.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 3:15-18

Christians are urged to remain steadfast in their allegiance to Christ, giving evidence always of gentleness and hope.

Gospel: John 14:15-21

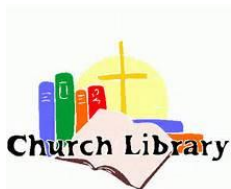

In his words to the apostles at the Last Supper, Jesus promises to send them a comforter, a Paraclete, the Spirit of truth, who will be with them always.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Jesus said to his disciples ‘If you love me you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot accept because it neither sees nor knows him. But you know him because he remains with you. I will not leave you orphans, I will come to you... And whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and reveal myself to him.’”

The priestly prayer of Jesus, similar to a pep talk or farewell speech, reassures the disciples of Jesus’ ongoing concern before His imminent departure. The promised Spirit offers life, protection and guidance to us all. How rarely do I treasure the fact that Jesus speaks to the Father on my behalf and promises me the gift of the Spirit when He leaves. That same promise continues today, as we need the Spirit.

He continues to watch out for us in our need as He speaks to the Father on our behalf. The advocate is present to us all to guide and guard, to direct and sustain us on our journey of holiness. Basically Jesus tells me I am loved by all, Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

We are looking for donations of children’s book for our Church Library. Donations may be brought to the Church.

Be still and know that I am God. (Ps.

46:11) Be still with a book about the Eucharist, the Mass, perhaps the Saints. Know God in the stillness of contemplation as you read. Visit our library. READ, RETURN OR PASS IT ON. soon and often

ST. CHARLES PARISH FAMILY EXTENDS A WARM WELCOME TO MOST REV. DOMINICK J. LAGONEGRO

We welcome and express our appreciation to Most Rev. Dominick J. Lagonegro who will administer the Sacrament of Confirmation at our parish today.

We congratulate all of our students who have faithfully prepared for this important event in their lives. The names of those to be confirmed are listed on the front cover of this bulletin.

ASCENSION OF THE LORD THURSDAY MAY 25TH

Forty days after Easter, we commemorate the Ascension: Jesus returning to heaven to prepare a place for those he has called to discipleship on earth.

The Ascension of the Lord is a holy day of obligation. Vigil Mass will be held on Wednesday evening at 5:30 pm and on the holy day Thursday at 8 am and 7 pm.

ST. CHARLES CEMETERY NEWS

Please take note: It is against our rules and regulations to have any borders, fences, stones, mulch and shrubs that exceed the height of the monument.

All items that are not conforming to our rules and regulation must be removed by Wednesday, May 31st. The Cemetery Staff will discard any decorations remaining after that date.

Thank you for your cooperation.

REVIVE MISSION

There will be a parish mission in our cluster of churches in June. We hope you will be able to attend and revitalize your life of faith. It is also an opportunity to pray and sing together and to hear the faith journeys of our brothers and sisters in Christ.

The first night of the mission will be at St. Mary’s in Marlboro on Monday, June 12; the second, Tuesday June 13, will be at St. Augustine’s in Highland; and the last night will be at St. Joseph’s in New Paltz on Wednesday, June 14. Each evening of the mission will begin at 7:00 P.M. and we hope that you can attend all three. All are welcome and bring a friend!
