FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 55:10-11

Just as the rain and snow water the earth and make it fruitful, so does the word of God bring forth good seed.

Second Reading: Romans 8:18-23

Reminding all that the trials and sufferings of this life are “as nothing,” Paul says that the glory we shall receive will overshadow all things.

Gospel: Matthew 13:1-23

Jesus tells the parable of the sower and the seed. The seed that landed on the footpath, on rocky ground, or among thorns withered and died; the seed that fell on good ground -- “the man who hears the message and takes it in” ... “bears a yield of a hundred-fold.”

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Thus says the Lord: Just as from the heavens the rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful, giving seed to the one who sows, and bread to the one who eats, so shall my word be that goes forth from my mouth, my word shall not return to me void...achieving the end for which I sent it.”

As our own gardens are bursting with colorful flowers and the vegetable plants continue to grow, the image of the seed, fertility and fruitfulness are so appropriate.

The prophet Isaiah, writing six centuries before the Christian era, used the same example as the parable of the seed, but also the need for water, warmth and care for the word to achieve its purpose.

We listen to the Word of God, we open the text and reflect upon it, we are so familiar with what is written and read. A more important step must be taken. The rain and snow must penetrate the earth to provide the necessary support for growth. The water cannot just run off as often happens with the sudden summer downpour.

A soft, penetrating shower offers the condition necessary to accomplish its end. So too, does reflection upon the word, weighing and pondering its meaning for me today. May my listening heart allow that growth to take place today.

Our Vacation Bible Camp week will begin this Monday, July 17. Father Matthew will give a special blessing on our Vacation Bible School Summer Camp and our team of volunteers at the 10:30 Mass today.

RENEW + REBUILD

UPDATE

Thank you to everyone who has given to the Renew + Rebuild Campaign. To-date we have received $279,250.00 in pledges toward our $286,000.00 goal.

As stated when we began this campaign, 74% of the total amount received is returning to our parish for our capital needs. Should we go over our goal we would receive 85%.

We are most grateful for everyone who has contributed and those who will continue to do so.

If you are praying about a gift and would like to contribute, please return the pledge card to the parish office or donate online: renewrebuild.org/donate and select St. Charles Borromeo Parish Gardiner from the drop-down menu. May God bless you for your dedication to our parish community.

Your every act should be done with love. Pick out a book from our library and share it with a loved one. READ, RETURN OR PASS IT ON.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION NEWS
