LIFE CHAIN 2017
Sunday, October 1st 1:30 – 3 pm
St. Joseph Church New Paltz

TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Ezekiel 18:25-28

Ezekiel reminds the people that if a sinner turns away from his iniquity, he will live, not die.

Second Reading: Philippians 2:1-11

Paul urges the converts at Philippi to be united in spirit and ideals, avoiding rivalry and dissension. He ends with the beautiful hymn extolling the humility and sacrifice of Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 21:28-32

Jesus speaks words of rebuke to the chief priests and the elders because they are not believing the teachings of John the Baptist. He warns them that tax collectors and prostitutes, who do believe John, will enter the Kingdom of God before them.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“But if he turns from the wickedness he has committed, and does what is right and just, he shall preserve his life, Since he has turned away from all the sins he has committed, he shall surely live...when John came to you in the way of righteousness, you did not believe him, but tax collectors and prostitutes did. Yet even when you saw that, you did not later change your minds and believe him.”

We are all called to conversion, to turn away from what is wrong or evil, and turn to what is good and beautiful. Unfortunately, some believe that conversion is an event of a single moment. God's grace inspires or impels us to change and do what is right and just. The one shining moment comes and takes over.

But for most of us, conversion is a lifelong process. We constantly are on guard to avoid what is evil, resist what impedes holiness, and continue the struggle as we 'hang in there.' We all experience that fight. Maybe we can use another approach. Conversion is not so much a turning from, but a turning to. We are summoned to turn to Christ, His life, the life of grace.

It is whom we seek that is important. When we keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, the obstacles and barrier are lessened and the direction of our lives becomes clearer. When we realize that Jesus has His eyes on us and is seeking us, we come to THE shining moment.

Our parish family warmly welcomes new members. You may register by coming to the rectory office or completing the form on the front cover of the bulletin. Registration is necessary for Sacramental participation and Religious Education. For letters of eligibility, you must be registered in the parish and actively participating in our parish.

THIS Friday, October 6th is the First Friday of the month. We welcome everyone to come in Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

We ask that if you plan to cover an hour, please sign up in the vestibule TODAY. The list will be used to ensure that the Blessed Sacrament will never be unattended. Signing the sheet does not commit you every first Friday.

KNIGHTS CORNER

Sunday, October 15 there will be a parish Blood Drive sponsored by the Knights of Columbus, Cardinal Spellman Council. Consider giving the Gift of Life by donating. Sign-up sheets are in the front vestibule of the Church.

Next Meeting of the Knights of Columbus will be held at 7 pm this Monday October 2nd in the parish hall.

OUR PARISH IS LOOKING FOR A PARISH WEBMASTER

We would like to express our gratitude to our dear parishioner and webmaster, Tony Truscello. Several years ago Tony helped our parish create a website and has maintained the site on a weekly basis.

Tony has expressed that he would like someone else to take reigns and update the current system.

The site is easy to manage and a person with fair computer skills will be able to learn in no time.

If interested in assisting our parish, please call Marie at the rectory office.

Our Lady of Lourdes High School Open House – Sunday, October 15th 1 – 4 pm

Exceptional Academics. Extraordinary Futures! Come and experience all the great things that are happening at Our Lady of Lourdes High School! We offer a rigorous College Prep curriculum that provides exciting and innovative learning experiences for our students. Join us at our Open House as we showcase teaching and learning in our “next generation” classrooms. Meet our faculty, students, coaches and club moderators, who will all be on hand to greet and talk with you. Our Class of 2017 have moved on to many fine institutions such as the US Military Academy at West Point, Carnegie Mellon, University of Chicago, UC Berkeley, University of Pennsylvania, Syracuse, and many more. They received over $35 million in college scholarships, and 95% of these graduates earned an average of 16 college credits. See how Lourdes will provide you with your “Extraordinary Future”! We look forward to seeing you on October 15th. If you need additional information, please contact Christine Kolosky at 845-463-0400, ext. 1005 or koloskyc@ollchs.org.
