Draw your strength from the Lord and from His mighty power. (Eph 6:10) Find God's mighty power in our library. Take some books and fill your soul with His message. READ, RETURN OR PASS IT ON.

EASTER SUNDAY OF
THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Peter discusses Jesus' life of preaching and healing. Jesus was crucified, and then he rose up and was seen by his chosen witnesses. Peter also mentions the importance of all the disciples bearing witness to what they saw, so that many people would believe in Jesus, and have their sins forgiven through him.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

Paul asserts that we must pay attention to higher realms rather than earthly concerns. Our life is not yet completely known to us, until Christ appears and we are raised to glory in him.

Gospel: John 20:1-9

When Mary Magdalene discovered Jesus' tomb was open, she told Simon Peter and another disciple. They ran to the tomb and Peter went inside. He found the burial wrappings on the ground, with the head covering separate from the rest. The other disciple came in and they believed what they saw, although until then they had not understood the Scripture's message of Jesus' resurrection.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Brothers and sisters: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.”

The day of victory and triumph, bringing great joy and peace. We have visited the empty tomb, and ask with the anxious apostles, ‘where is He?’. ‘We were hoping...’ As Easter people our hopes are not dashed, but we hear reports of the Risen Christ in the upper room, on the road to Emmaus, in the garden and at the shores of the sea. He is not hidden.

We as believers look for the Lord too. Look within, as He lives and lives in us. Today may we recognize His presence through the life of grace. May we acknowledge in His presence in others. May we bring that presence to those who are slow to believe. May we adore that presence in the Eucharist.

Don't let His life remain hidden, but through living your faith reveal that presence to others.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY April 28th his year there will be no Holy Hour in our Church due to the sacrament of Confirmation being held in our Church.

EASTER JOY, THE EMPTY TOMB, OUR NEW LIFE, OUR VOCATION

“This is the Day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad!”

For over 2,000 years the followers of the Risen Christ have celebrated this day as the day Jesus rose from the dead as he promised. The faithful women went to his tomb, early in the morning of ‘That First Day of the Week,’ and found his tomb empty! They ran back to the upper room, where the disciples were locked away in fear of their own lives. They proclaimed that they had not only seen the empty tomb, but that some of them had even encountered the Risen Lord himself!

The disciples were hesitant to believe until Jesus appeared to them over the course of weeks until he returned to his heavenly Father. Then filled with the promised gift of the Holy Spirit, they went out to ‘all the world,’ as he instructed them to, proclaiming with their very lives his gospel Good News.

This is ‘Our Day,’ that the Lord has made for us. This is our Day of New life and Resurrection. We are his current-day witnesses at the empty tomb and his disciples of that Good News. So how are you and I dealing with that, living with that truly good news, in a world so full of bad news? Jesus’ life, death and resurrection changed and continues to change our lives and the world.

Our faith journey extends beyond forty days of Lent and now fifty days of Easter. This is our life-long mission, to go beyond the cross to the empty tomb, to be faithful here and now in all that we say, live and do. For this is the day the Lord has made, made for us. Let us rejoice and be glad to live it every day of our lives; for: CHRIST IS RISEN! HE IS RISEN INDEED, ALLELUIA!

Happy Easter.... Father Matthew
