FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses petitions the people to follow the commandments God has set before them. He reminds them that the laws are not in the sky or far away at sea, but are accessible to them and meant to be followed if they wish to prosper.

Second Reading: Colossians 1:15-20

Paul discusses the divine nature of Jesus, and explains that Jesus was created before anything else. Everything else was "created through him, and for him."

Gospel: Luke 10:25-37

While discussing everlasting life, a lawyer mentions loving one's neighbor as oneself. The lawyer then asks Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?" Jesus tells him about a man beaten by robbers, who was ignored by both a priest and a Levite before a Samaritan stopped and offered him aid. Jesus asks the lawyer who was neighbor to the injured man. The lawyer says "the one who treated him with compassion." Jesus encourages him to go and do the same.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, what is written in the law? How do you read it?' ...You shall love...and your neighbor as yourself.' He replied to him, 'You have answered correctly; do this and you will live.' And because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, 'and who is my neighbor?' Jesus replied... a man..."

The story of the good Samaritan is one of the clearest teaching moments of Jesus, as He used the two first testament books to describe the only way one can love God is through love of neighbor. Perhaps I am like the scholar of the law, thinking that I am in pretty good shape, as I pray, honor God and try to do the right thing. But wait a minute. Do I dare ask 'who is my neighbor' without fearing the consequences?

Pope Francis has called us to see the face of Christ in those who ask our help, who need our assistance. He asks two things: that we recognize the Christ in people who come to us, and to reflect the face of Christ to those who approach us. The parable ends with the scholar, unable to describe the unnamed Samaritan, saying the neighbor was the one treated him with compassion. He was told, go and do likewise. Think today of one person or group who are looking for the good Samaritan. Do they find him in you?

Our Bake Sale/Plant Sale was a great success!

Thank you to everyone who supported this fundraiser!

EMILY FLAHERTY WILL SPEAK AT NEXT WEEKEND MASSES

A fellow local young adult, Emily Flaherty, will be giving a year to serve the chronically homeless in Denver, CO beginning this August with the program Christ in the City. Christ in the City missionaries make a difference in the lives of the homeless by meeting them on the streets and forming friendships with them. By experiencing being loved and known, their friends on the street can encounter Christ's love for them, believe in their dignity, and regain hope in their lives. The missionaries must raise $8,100 by July 31st in order to fund their year. Please consider being part of this mission by supporting Emily through both your prayers and financial help. For more information about Christ in the City and how to support Emily, see the following link: www.christinthecity.co/emilyflaherty
