Jesus then said to those Jews who believed in Him "If you remain in my word, you will truly be my disciples, and you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." (John 8:31-32) Learn more of Jesus truths from books in our library. You can never learn too much. READ, RETURN OR PASS IT ON.

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 66:18-21

Isaiah portrays a time when people from many nations will gather in Jerusalem and proclaim God's glory. God's messengers will teach many nations about God. Just as the Israelites bring offerings, these messengers will bring people from all nations to worship.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13

The Hebrews are told that God disciplines those he loves. When a parent disciplines a child, the child usually learns what is expected of him. The Hebrews are encouraged to face life's trials as a form of discipline, and attempt to learn something from them.

Gospel: Luke 13:22-30

Jesus warns that the door to God's kingdom will be locked for those who ignored his wishes. Many people will come from all nations and take their place in God's kingdom. Others will not be recognized by God, and he will reject them.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Jesus passed through many towns and villages, teaching as he went and making his way to Jerusalem. Someone asked him, ‘Lord, will only a few people be saved?’ He answered them, ‘Strive to enter through the narrow gate, for many, I tell you, will attempt to enter but will not be strong enough... He will say, I do not know where you are from...’”

Because of the generosity of our God in coming, redeeming and saving us, we tend to become lazy and indifferent, forgetting that Jesus entrusts a task to us. St. Paul tells us ‘He wants all people to be saved and come to knowledge of the truth.’ But His wish is also that we STRIVE, make a concerted effort, to gain the gift of salvation.

Through our life of prayer we stay in communication with our God. Through our service to one another with the works of mercy we grow in our love of our neighbor. Through our active participation in the life of the church and community, we make the gospel known.

Among the challenges of our day is legislation denying the right to life, mercy killing, closing the door to immigrants and refugees. The horrible laws are passed by Catholic legislators who seem to miss the point of the gospel.

ROSARY FOR LIFE SEPTEMBER 7TH
8 AM BEFORE THE 8:30 AM MASS.

BIBLE DISCUSSION SEPTEMBER 7TH
9 AM – 10 AM ON THE FRONT PORCH OF THE RECTORY. BRING YOUR BIBLE AND COME GATHER TOGETHER!

Emily Flaherty would like to thank the St. Charles community for their generosity this past weekend towards the mission of Christ in the City. By your contribution, either financial or spiritual, you have become an important partner of Christ in the City and an invaluable member of the mission! Emily will be sending updates throughout the year so that our community will know the good work of which we have become a part. Please continue to pray for the mission, and if you would like to learn more or become more involved, please visit <https://christinthecity.org/>
