TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Amos 8:4-7

The prophet Amos expressed disgust over people who take advantage of the poor. He describes businessmen scheming to cheat the poor, then declares that God will "never forget the things they have done."

Second Reading: 1 Timothy 2:1-8

Paul urges the Christians to pray for all people, especially those in authority. Paul even asked them to pray for the kings who denounced Christ's teachings, because God wants all people to be saved through Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 16:1-13

Jesus tells a story about a servant who tries to cheat his employer. The owner is impressed because he would do the same thing himself. Jesus then describes the importance of being trustworthy in small matters, as well as in greater ones. He then states that no one can serve two masters faithfully, so people cannot give themselves completely to both God and money.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

First of all, I ask that supplications, prayers, petitions, and thanksgivings be offered for everyone, for kings and all in authority, that we may lead a quiet and tranquil life in all devotion and dignity. This is good and pleasing to God our Savior, who wills everyone to be saved and to come to knowledge of the truth."

Perhaps there is no clearer summary of what our prayer life should be like, than this directive of Paul to his disciple and companion. We are asked to move from prayer for myself to prayer for others, offering gratitude for His goodness to me and asking blessings for others.

As I respond to the Spirit's directive in my prayer I include praise, thanksgiving, and gratitude, my needs and the needs of others, seeking and offering forgiveness. There are many models of great and holy people teaching by example their way of prayer. Return to the Lord's prayer and find all these elements in the words we recite so often, yet sometimes fleetingly. That is why Paul's reminder today begins with 'first of all...'

October is Right to Life month. As in the past, a Mass of the Anointing will be held on Saturday October 19th at 12 noon. Light refreshments will be served after Mass.

Thank you
FOR YOUR SUPPORT

It's no easy feat to feed 230 people, so I would like to thank everyone who assisted with this year's Chicken BBQ.

Many hands helped to make this event a success; from those who helped sell tickets, set up the hall, prepare the food (cutting tomatoes, peeling cucumbers, shucking the corn etc), put the take-out orders together, serve the food and clean the hall, as well as those who donated baked goods, fruits vegetables and other items for the raffles.

Thank you goes out to Tony and Virginia DiFazio for their donation of farm fresh produce, Marguerite Violante donation of houseplants and Walkkill Greenhouse for the mum plants.

I would also like to thank those who supplied the food:

Ireland Corners General Store - rolls

Hannafords - chicken

Rossi's Deli - vegetables

Tantillo's - tomatoes, cucumbers, corn-on-the-cob, apple crisp and donuts.

I could not have done it without you and look forward to working with you again next year.

Thank you!

Lou Dauerer

A COFFEE A DAY FOR OUR PARISH

Our Parish is Our Home

We are family, united in the mission of Jesus Christ. Just as you have expenses in your own family's home, our parish also has similar expenses to keep up with, such as electricity, heat and gas. By participating in A Coffee a Day for Our Parish, you will help us continue providing the services and ministries that make this community vibrant. What to you may be a small cost – like a cup of coffee a day or weekly takeout meal – can make a big difference.

How much can you afford to increase your giving to help our parish?
