TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: 2 Kings 5:14-17

Elisha cures Naaman of leprosy, which convinces Naaman that there is only one God. Naaman then asks to take some loads of soil from Israel, so that he can worship and make sacrifices to one true God on his own land.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2:8-13

Paul reminds Timothy that Christ rose from the dead so that many people could be saved. Paul was being treated as a criminal and kept in chains but says, "There is no chaining the word of God!" Paul also says, "if we die in Christ, we will live in him. But if we deny him, he will deny us."

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

Jesus cures ten lepers, but only one returns to express gratitude for being healed. Jesus is disappointed that only one gave thanks to God, but tells that one, "Your faith has been your salvation."

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, is a descendant of David: such is my gospel, for which I am suffering, even to the point of chains, like a criminal. But the Word of God is not chained. Thus I bear with everything for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they too may obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, together with eternal glory."

At every Eucharist, or in a quiet reflective moment, God speaks to us through the scriptures. We open our hearts to what the Lord has to say, and gently, softly, His word moves us to a deeper union with Him. For this to happen, it requires several steps. I begin by acknowledging that God is addressing me, at this moment, in this text. I simply ask 'Lord what do you wish for me to take from this reading today?' I wonder how the power of the word may direct my life.

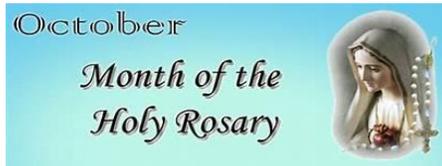

Think for a moment. If each person in our parish community would ask these questions and seek the Lord's response, our lives would be radically changed, our concern for those around me would grow and the unchained word would spread more effectively in my world. God speaks, I hear and listen, and others allow their response to blend with mine to obtain the salvation in Christ Jesus.

Bible Study will meet twice a month on the first and third Saturday of the month. Our next meetings will be October 19th at 9:00 am on the Rectory Porch. All are invited to attend!

The rectory office will be closed on Monday, October 14th due to Columbus Day.

Join us on Saturday mornings to pray A Rosary for Life before the 8:30 am Mass.

Mass of Anointing will be held on October 19th at 12 noon.

The liturgical reforms of the Second Vatican Council called for the full participation of the laity in the celebration of the Mass. In doing so the Church Fathers turned to the practice of the early Church in which non-ordained men and women had a greater role in that celebration, principally as Lectors and Eucharistic Ministers. Over the centuries those roles became the exclusive realm of the clergy. We are very fortunate here at St. Charles to have dedicated parishioners serving in the roles of Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Altar Servers, Ushers/Greeters and Choir Members; and yet we could always use more. We encourage those who may be interested in serving in one of these ministries, to call Father Matthew. Please prayerfully consider serving your parish in this way.

November 2nd

The faithful on earth can help save a soul by offering prayers and good deeds, and by the Sacrifice of the Mass. All Souls Day Remembrance envelopes are available in both vestibules, as well as in the envelope packets you received in the mail. The names of your loved ones will be kept on the altar throughout the month of November and the souls of your loved ones will be remembered at all Masses.

HELP DEFER THE COST OF OUR YEARLY MISSALS We are accepting a $8.00 donation per missal. Donations may be put in the collection basket in a separate envelope. Let us know what name you would like printed on the label that will be put on the outside of the missal.

Let us not forget...

For Catholics, Mass attendance is a vital part of weekly life. It is the time to gather together in God's presence, to be nourished by God and by one another. We listen to the words of the Scripture, we pray together and we share the Body & Blood of Christ

A Healing Mass will be held on Sunday afternoon, October 20 at 4 pm at Our Lady of Fatima in Plattekill.

We had a successful "You Might Find It Sale". There are so many people to thank!. Many parishioners worked hard setting up, selling, and cleaning up. We also thank all who donated items and all who attended the event. Many thanks to Ann Gulbrandsen for her delicious soups and all who prepared and serve the food. We thank all those who provided their special cakes and cookies enjoyed by all. The net profit was $1235.00. Marie Regino and Peggy McIntyre

Kid's Korner

We will be holding our Annual Holiday Cookie Walk on Saturday, December 7th from 9:30 am to 3:30 pm in our Parish Hall. Vendors are needed! For more information and reservations please call: Jean LeRose 564 -1153. Leave a message for a return call. Please help support St. Charles Borromeo Parish. For additional information please call Jean at 564-1153. Thank you for your continued support. May God bless you.

NY Faith & Freedom Coalition will hold their monthly meeting on Friday, October 18th at 7 pm in their meeting room 4368 Robinson Avenue, Newburgh NY. This month's topic: The Jezebel spirit in America. All are invited to attend. Need more information, call Bill at 561-9498

PANEL ON ADDICTION AND RECOVERY- On Wednesday, October 17 St. Joseph Church in New Paltz (34 South Chestnut St.) will present a panel discussion pertaining to the growing concerns around substance abuse. This is being offered in conjunction with the New Paltz Office of Wellness. There will be representatives from Catholic Charities and recovery-based programs who will share their knowledge with us and answer any questions you may have. Listen to the stories of addiction and learn how recovery is possible. All are welcome and for more information please contact Br. John Koelle at brjohnk@gmail.com

PRESENTATION ON MARY IN SCRIPTURE- Over the centuries, Christians have expressed many different, often conflicting, views of Mary the mother of Jesus, and her role in God's plan of salvation. What do our earliest sources, found in the New Testament, really say about Mary? On Tuesday, October 22 there will be a presentation on this topic at St. Joseph Church in New Paltz in the church hall. (34 South Chestnut St.)

TEACHING MASS- Do you want to deepen your appreciation and love of the Mass? Do you want to experience a fuller and more active participation in the Mass? On Monday, October 28 at 7:00 P.M. St. Joseph's in New Paltz will be offering a teaching Mass in their church. (34 South Chestnut St.) While celebrating an actual Mass we will also explain the ritual itself and the Church's understanding of what is happening during the Mass. You will find out why do we do what we do at Mass and come away with a greater appreciation of it all.

Please join us as we celebrate
Halloween, All Saints' Day, All Souls' Day
And the Feast of St. Charles Borromeo

Saturday, November 2nd at 5:30PM

*Join us for a night of games & fun while also enjoying an Italian Dinner, show-casing food from local restaurants,
to honor our Italian Patron Saint, Charles Borromeo*

Tickets are $10 per family and must be purchased in advance after Mass or through the Church Office

You are welcome to wear costumes to the event as we'll be holding our annual Costume Contest!
