TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 56:1, 6-7

The Lord wants all people to love and honor his name. He says that those who honor him by obeying all of his laws will be “made joyful in my house of prayer.”

Second Reading: Romans 11:13-15, 29-32

Paul describes his hopes that his fellow Jews will follow the example of the Gentiles he has been preaching to. He claims that just as God has mercy for their disobedience, he wishes to show mercy to the Jews as well.

Gospel: Matthew 15:21-28

A Canaanite woman begged Jesus to help her daughter, who was being plagued by a demon. Jesus at first refused her and said that “My mission is only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.” The woman was so persistent that Jesus said she had great faith and then he healed her daughter.

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“Thus says the Lord: Observe what is right, do what is just, for my salvation is about to come, my justice is about to be revealed. The foreigners who join themselves to the Lord, ministering to him, loving the name of the Lord and becoming his servants - them I will bring to my holy mountain and make joyful in my house of prayer... for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all people.”

Rather than quickly pass over the passage of Isaiah, may we reread it, and see, this is what is happening in our church today.

The growth of the church in the United States has been built on two pillars – the Holy Spirit and immigration.

How many people, like immigrants of old, have come to our parishes, bringing their faith, customs and traditions. They come with faith and wish to live and share their experience with us. Do we welcome them? Do we go out to meet them?

Pope Francis tells us the church grows by attraction, not by proselytizing. As missionary disciples he calls us to evangelize, to welcome all as part of our faith communities. Our Lady of Guadalupe is the mother of Jesus. Saint John Paul II was a Polish pope. Saint Oscar Romero was martyred in our time for the same faith. How blessed we are to be living and learning today.

KNIGHTS CORNER New members are always welcome. Call Bill Freymann at 883-0138.

MESSAGE FROM FATHER BOB PANEK

At this time of the Coronavirus pandemic, I like many of you, have limited socialization with anyone outside of our home. I am not able to visit with anyone outside of the facility where I live.

Many of you have been keeping in touch with me and I greatly appreciate getting updates on you and your family. I want my friends at St. Charles to know that I think of all of you often and you are in my prayers.

With a blessing and a prayer,

Father Bob Panek

CHURCH LIST

The Parish Office is in the process of updating our Parishioner contact information. We are asking each family to contact the rectory office at 255-1374 if they would like to share their cell phone number and email address. The office is open Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

Our Helping Hands Ministry has been helping more families than usual during this pandemic. We are grateful for all those who have come forward and volunteered to work with this special ministry. This ministry could always use volunteers that have a truck to pick up food twice a month from the Food Bank. Your donations of toiletries and your financial support is greatly appreciated.

If you have any questions or would like to volunteer, please call Jean LeRose 564-1153.

ANXIOUS ?

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus (Phillippians 4:6-7) Relieve your anxiety with an uplifting book from our library. Take more than one and share. READ, RETURN OR PASS IT ON. Need help in deciding what book see Ginny Gravatt or take several books.

There are several Masses available in the 2020 Mass intentions book. If you would like to schedule a Mass, dedicate the Bread & Wine, Sanctuary Candle or Flowers in memory of or the intentions of a loved one, you can make arrangements by calling the rectory office. The rectory office is open Monday, Wednesday and Fridays between 9 am and 4 pm.

2021 Mass Intention book has been opened. You may call the rectory office to schedule Mass, Bread & Wine, Sanctuary candle or Flowers for the week.

PARISHIONERS ON OUR ENVELOPE SYSTEM

We are compiling an updated list of parishioners who receive our contribution envelopes. Please inform the rectory office as soon as possible, if you have any changes or you do not wish to receive 2021 envelopes. Thank you for your cooperation.
