

Dear Parents:

Happy Grandparents' Day! We are so excited to host all of our grandparents and we pray for those that either could not make it or who have passed on. I personally know how influential my grandparents were for me, and all grandparents are truly a blessing from God.

A big thanks to everyone for their help and support with our first E-Learning Day. On-line learning is not going away and will be a part of your child's learning as they continue on their educational journey. It will be a requirement for high school and throughout college in some capacity. At the same time, it does present some challenges with work, babysitting, etc., and we appreciate you working with us to make it as successful as possible.

It is hard to believe that we are only two weeks away from the end of the first quarter. Please make sure that your child(ren) are getting plenty of rest, eating a good breakfast, and finishing the quarter in a strong manner.

God Bless!

Mr. Detzel

Each week I will try to add a new tip to help your child succeed in school.

3. Designate a Study Area. Yes, studying at the local coffee shop may seem like a good idea, but not if there are constantly people interrupting or other disruptions. Even at home, studying in front of the TV won't be the best use of your son or daughter's time. Help your child by providing a quiet, well-lit, low-traffic space for study time. Take it one step further and institute a "communications blackout" policy with no cell phones or social media allowed until schoolwork is done.
