Describe a time when you or your family has served someone? How did you feel?

Tip of the Week

“Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.” Mt. 25:40

Every person is created unique and made in “the image of God” (Genesis 1:26-27). We have an opportunity to encounter God in the when we encounter another person, “Each one of them is Jesus in disguise.” says Mother Teresa.

Our faith moves us to see and treat others as we would treat Jesus. Let’s think about how we have treated people lately--our family members, neighbors, friends, co-workers, strangers, and if we have not treated them as we would treat Jesus, let’s begin today. It doesn’t need to be a big thing, but even the small acts of kindness, like a smile, a good morning, make a big difference in people’s lives.

It is never too late; let’s begin right now; let’s smile at the first person we encounter right now.
