

Workshop: The Catechumenate Period

Josue Arriola is the Director of the Department of Evangelization and Family Life, Diocese of Trenton. Josue holds a Master of Arts degree in Theology from Augustine Institute, Denver, CO and a Bachelor of Arts degree with a concentration in Humanities from Thomas Edison State College, Trenton. He has pursued studies in pastoral ministry at Georgian Court University, Lakewood, and pastoral Hispanic leadership at The Catholic University of America, Washington, DC. Prior to his work with the Diocese of Trenton, he served as Associate Director of the Office of Evangelization in the Metuchen Diocese.

This training will focus on the Catechumenate Period in RCIA and will give a step by step plan of how to guide Catechumens through this part of their faith journey and the liturgical rites connected with this part of the process.
