Parent Presentations:

This is a great opportunity to get parents involved and empower them as their children's first teachers.

The Presenter:

Enza Cerami is a licensed social worker and certified catechist in the Diocese of Trenton who has presented the chastity message for over 10 years in New Jersey. She is the founder and Executive Director for Living Stones Inc., a non-profit ministry that works to create affordable chastity programming tailored to your setting.

"Enza has a beautiful gift of sharing the joy and freedom that come from living a life according to God's plan. Her presentations balance the strength of conviction along with gentleness and compassion that is inviting to listeners." Jennifer Petrillo- Director of Religious Education
