SUNDAY REFLECTION

Our security lies in God alone; he is our anchor and strength.

In the Gospel today, Jesus paints a picture of a time when there will be wars and earthquakes and famine. Yet He offers hope and says, Do not be terrified. We must know that our security cannot rest in anything of this world, but on God alone, who will sustain us in times of suffering.

In the first reading, Malachi proclaims the coming judgment where the proud and evildoers will face destruction, while those who fear the Lord will be healed. In the second reading, Paul reminds believers to behave in an orderly way. In the Gospel, Jesus describes events that involve the persecution and suffering of believers, and warns them not to be taken in by false prophets or worldly signs.

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for NOVEMBER Dialogue and Reconciliation in the Near East

That a spirit of dialogue, encounter, and reconciliation emerge in the Near East, where diverse religious communities share their lives together.

WELCOME TO OUR VISITORS!

We are happy that you've joined with us in celebrating the Day of Our Lord! If you are travelling, thank you for choosing St. Peter or St Mark to celebrate the weekend's Mass; if you are visiting the area looking for a Spiritual Home, please consider one of our parishes. If you are regularly attending our parish, but have not registered, there are forms on the table in the Entryway for registering with us. Please complete the form and either mail it to us, drop it at the office, or drop it in the collection basket at the Mass. Thank You!

Winter Clothing Drive

Please bring your donations of winter clothing to the barrel in the entryway at either parish.
Thank You!

Get READY FOR HEAVEN

Marist's free workshop concerning moral investments and end-of-life decisions (such as funeral planning and Advance Directives) is this Sunday, November 17 at 1:30 p.m. on campus. Call for details - Rebecca 541-790-9454. All are welcome!

Turkey Drive Is On

Beginning the weekend of Nov. 16-17, a freezer will be on hand to collect your donations of turkeys and hams. They are destined for households in need via St. Vincent de Paul's Holiday Food Box project, a distribution of more than 3,000 boxes stocked for a traditional holiday meal, and the long school break. The freezer will remain at St. Mark through Nov. 24, and at St. Peter through Dec. 1. Thank YOU for helping fill it.

IN MEMORIAM

Please Join Fr. Michael in commemorating the first anniversary of his mother's death at her Memorial Mass on Thursday, November 21, at 6:00pm, at St. Mark.

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Carlos Angelo who died last week.
