PARISH MISSION STATEMENT
We, the community of Sts. Martha, Mary and Lazarus, Friends of Jesus Catholic Parish, are committed to our baptismal covenant with Jesus Christ. This covenant is manifested in our worship, evangelization, education, stewardship, service and our commitment to live as a community of faith. We center our parish life on Christ, Scripture and the celebration of the Sacraments in joyous worship and prayerful reflection of His love and mercy. We come together as a community of faith, in a spirit of hospitality and loving care, to serve one another in times of need and to share in the joys and struggles of everyday life in Christ. We provide all members of our diverse community the opportunity for spiritual growth through faith formation and the sharing of the richness of our Catholic tradition. We, as stewards of God’s gifts, share generously of our time, talent and treasure within our community and extend that care to others in fulfilling the mission of the Church in the world.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

“We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purposes.” - Romans 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you believe that all things work for good? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, means that God’s plan for our lives may be different than our plan. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

CHALICE FOR VOCATIONS

Please join the PHILIPP FAMILY (husband of Colleen Carpenter) in prayer this week as they host the Chalice and pray for vocations. Interested? Please contact Albert Holden at 713-292-6066 or by e-mail at aaholden@embarqmail.com to schedule a week.
To the parish family of St. Martha,

The Gospel text used for the 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time is a continuation of the teaching of Jesus about God’s Kingdom which we have been listening to for the last several weekends. This teaching is contained in stories or parables and they appear in chapter 13 of Matthew’s Gospel. The term that Matthew uses in his Gospel is the Kingdom of Heaven. The evangelist gives us a variety of images from these parables in order that we may come to understand and appreciate the wisdom of the Kingdom. In today’s account the stories describe the Kingdom as a treasure in a field, a pearl of great price, and as a large net drawing all things under the dominion of God’s grace. What then is this Kingdom of Heaven for which we must be willing to make great personal sacrifices? Simply put, the Kingdom is the way of life Jesus embraced. It is a way of living life here and now and not merely a state of being that will happen after we die. It is a life of a disciple of Jesus, a life of faithful commitment and generous service of others. It is a life anchored in one’s trust of God and demonstrated through personal integrity. The Apostle Paul describes in our second reading what such a life looks like in spiritual terms: a life of conformity to the image of God’s own Son. He teaches further that all of us are called to share in this life from the very beginning of our existence. The Church’s liturgy celebrates this great mystery in the Sacrament of Baptism. Paul goes on to point out that, through our daily participation in the building up of the Kingdom, we will be justified and glorified in the Lord Jesus.

The wonderful story in today’s first reading from the 1st Book of Kings suggests the kind of attitude we are required to have if we are to allow the Kingdom of Heaven to truly possess our lives. The young Solomon has just assumed the throne of his father David as king of Israel and he quickly realizes his personal limitations brought on by his youth and inexperience. In a dream God asks him what he desires in order to be able to serve as king. Solomon humbly responds, “Give your servant an understanding heart.” God marvels at the maturity of his request and promises Solomon a wise and discerning heart by which he will guide and lead his people. If we are to recognize and cooperate with God’s plan in our personal lives and in our world, we too need an attentive and discerning heart. Let us sincerely ask the Lord for such wisdom.

CARING COOKS:
THANK YOU to all of our Caring Cooks who have so generously given of their time to make meals for those in our parish community who are truly in need at a difficult time and have no one to provide meals for them. This is an awesome ministry open to anyone who would like to provide a meal every now and then to a fellow parishioner in need. We are a blessed community in that we have so many caring and helpful folks to help out when one of us is in need. If you would like to be a part of this truly rewarding team of caring cooks please call: Karen Rexer 281-354-8857 or Marian Brown 281-360-6914 to sign up. And as always, if you should find yourself or someone you know in need of help with meals during a very difficult time please know there is someone there to help.

This and That

STEWARDSHIP SAINT FOR JULY
Saint Martha

Just before Jesus’ final entry into Jerusalem, his close friends, Martha, her sister, Mary, and brother, Lazarus, entertained Jesus at their home in Bethany (John 12:1-8). Martha “served,” while Mary anointed his feet. It is in the simple statement, “Martha served,” that we recognize Martha for her witness to stewardship.

She isn’t a prolific evangelist, she doesn’t work miracles. She simply serves Jesus. Jesus may have been a frequent visitor to Martha’s home and perhaps this is one of the reasons the Gospel of John reveals to us that “Jesus loved Martha, and her sister Mary, and Lazarus” (11:5). This unique statement in the Gospel informs us of the special relationship Jesus had with Martha and her siblings. And, as another one of Jesus’ visits to Martha’s home affirms, Martha continues to be concerned that Jesus be served. Like any good steward, hospitality was very important to Martha (Luke 10:38-42).

What is most revealing about Martha is on the occasion of the death of Lazarus (John 11:1-44). Martha takes an active role, going out to meet Jesus to let him know what happened to her brother while Mary stays at home. Jesus assures her that Lazarus will be raised from the dead.

With courage and conviction, Martha confesses her deep faith in Jesus Christ: “I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day.” Then Jesus said to her: “I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die.” When he asked Martha if she believed this, she replied: “Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world.” (John 11:24-27).

The feast of Saint Martha, a witness to service who confessed her faith in Jesus, is July 29. She is the patron saint of homemakers, cooks, domestic workers, waiters and waitresses, and hotel employees.

FEAST OF ST. MARTHA

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

CELEBRATING 20 YEARS OF DEVOTION TO PRAYER IN ST. MARTHA’S PARISH

“Could you not watch one hour with Me?” Mark 14:37

Our parish is incredibly blessed to have Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration available in our adoration chapel twenty-four hours a day. Jesus dwells in the Blessed Sacrament because of His infinite love for each one of us, and He is always present there in the Blessed Sacrament patiently waiting for us to come and spend time with Him.

Listed below are hours that are most in need of adorers at this time. However, please note that no hour is really ever “filled” because parishioners are always invited to choose an hour that works best for them, regardless of whether or not there are other adorers already there in prayer.

Both regular adorers and substitutes are needed at this time. Even if you do not have a regular hour, please feel free to visit our Blessed Lord at any time knowing that He is always waiting for us with joyful anticipation.

Second adorers are needed for the following hours:

- Sunday: 1-2 AM, 2-3 AM, Noon-1 PM, 2-3 PM, 3-4 PM.
- Monday: 1-2 AM.
- Tuesday: 2-3 AM, 1-2 PM, 11 PM-Midnight.
- Wednesday: 11 PM-Midnight.
- Thursday: 1-2 AM.
- Friday: 1-2 AM, 6-7 PM, 7-8 PM.
- Saturday: 1-2 AM, 9-10 AM, Noon-1 PM, 2-3 PM.

If you are interested in participating in this ministry or would like more information, please contact Robyn Laumbach at either 281-360-7897 or robynbfly@embarqmail.com. If you need a substitute, please call one of our division leaders: Robyn Laumbach at 281-360-7897 for Midnight-6 AM, Karen Ehlig at 281-361-7127 for 6 AM-Noon, Annunciata Hopkins at 281-360-1258 for Noon-6 PM, and Beth Beckham at 281-435-1439 for 6 PM-Midnight.
El evangelio utilizado para el 17o Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario es la continuación de la enseñanza de Jesús sobre el Reino de Dios que hemos estado escuchando durante los últimos fines de semana. Esta enseñanza está contenida en las historias o parábolas y aparecen en el capítulo 13 del Evangelio de Mateo. El término que utiliza Mateo en su Evangelio es el Reino de los Cielos. El evangelista nos da una variedad de imágenes de estas parábo- las, para que podamos llegar a entender y apreciar la sabiduría del Reino. En el relato de hoy las historias describen el Reino como un tesoro en un campo, una perla de gran precio, y como una gran red dibujando todas las cosas bajo el dominio de la gracia de Dios. ¿Cuál es entonces este reino de los cielos para los que debemos estar dispuestos a hacer grandes sacrificios personales? En pocas palabras, el Reino es la forma de vida que Jesús abrazó. Es una forma de vivir la vida aquí y ahora, y no solamente un estado de ser que va a pasar después de morir. Es una vida de un discípulo de Jesús, una vida de compromiso fiel y generoso servicio a los demás. Es una vida anclada en la confianza de Dios de una y demostrado a través de una integridad personal. El apóstol Pablo describe en nuestra segunda lectura lo que esa vida se parece en términos espirituales: una vida de acuerdo a la imagen del Hijo de Dios. Él enseña, además, que todos nosotros estamos llamados a participar en esta vida desde el primer momento de nuestra existencia. La liturgia de la Iglesia celebra este gran misterio en el sacramento del Bautismo. Pablo pasa a señalar que, a través de nuestra participación diaria en la edificación del Reino, seremos justificados y glorificados en el Señor Jesús.

La maravillosa historia de la primera lectura de hoy de la primer Libro de los Reyes sugiere el tipo de actitud que estamos obligados a tener si vamos a permitir que el Reino de los Cielos a posea verdaderamente nuestras vidas. El joven Salomón acaba de asumir el trono de su padre David como rey de Israel, y se da cuenta rápidamente de sus limitaciones personales causados por su juventud e inexperiencia. En un sueño, Dios le pide lo que desea con el fin de ser capaz de servir como rey. Salomón responde humildemente: "Dale a tu siervo un corazón entendido". Dios se maravilla de la madurez de su petición y promete a Salomón un corazón sabio y entendido por el cual los guiará a su pueblo. Si hemos de reconocer y cooperar con el plan de Dios en nuestra vida personal y en nuestro mundo, nosotros también necesitamos un corazón atento y exigente. Sinceramente pidámosle al Señor por tanta sabiduría.
