Parish Mission Statement
We, the community of Sts. Martha, Mary and Lazarus, Friends of Jesus Catholic Parish, are committed to our baptismal covenant with Jesus Christ. This covenant is manifested in our worship, evangelization, education, stewardship, service and our commitment to live as a community of faith. We center our parish life on Christ, Scripture and the celebration of the Sacraments in joyous worship and prayerful reflection of His love and mercy. We come together as a community of faith, in a spirit of hospitality and loving care, to serve one another in times of need and to share in the joys and struggles of everyday life in Christ. We provide all members of our diverse community the opportunity for spiritual growth through faith formation and the sharing of the richness of our Catholic tradition. We, as stewards of God’s gifts, share generously of our time, talent and treasure within our community and extend that care to others in fulfilling the mission of the Church in the world.

TALK FOR THE RIDE HOME

Theme: Jesus was speaking about the temple of his body.

How does the church help "build up" your faith? How do your words and actions "build up" or "tear down" the Church? In what way do you have zeal for the Church?

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

In today’s reading from Saint Paul’s letter to the Christian community at Corinth, he suggests that we are all called to be “wise master builders” in the building up of God’s temple, the local Church. Each one of us has been given gifts to offer this building enterprise, and we are called to be good stewards of this project, to build this church together, in communion with one another, according to God’s plan, not ours. Jesus Christ is the solid foundation upon whom we are to build. Saint Paul further suggests that God will judge us according to the quality of our stewardship. Can we see ourselves as “master builders” of God’s church? What gifts are we using to construct this holy place that God will call home?

From the Pastor

To the parish family of St. Martha,
This weekend is an occasion when the Church interrupts the normal liturgical calendar (it is the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time) and asks us to celebrate the feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica. We commemorate the consecration of the immense cathedral or basilica of St. John in Rome which was built by Constantine the Great in the early 4th Century. Constantine was the pagan Roman emperor who experienced a religious conversion, put an end to the terrible persecution of the Church, and made it legal to be a Christian in the Roman empire. Tradition tells us that Constantine, in preparation for the battle of the Milvian Bridge on the Tiber River, had a vision in which he saw Christ in a dream and was told to paint a cross on his army’s shields. While at prayer before the battle, the Emperor saw a cross over the sun with the inscription, “In this sign, you will conquer.” Constantine marked his conversion and this important victory by commissioning the construction of a cathedral just outside the walls of ancient Rome, near what is called the Lateran Gate. For many centuries before the building of St. Peter’s Basilica, St. John Lateran was the papal cathedral (and still is today) and is known as the “mother church of Christendom.” It was there that kings were crowned, treaties were signed, ecumenical councils met, and the course of Christianity and Western civilization were charted. There is a dimension to this celebration that impacts us today in our own faith life. For over seventeen and a half centuries in this same location human beings have been baptized, sins have been forgiven in Confession, and Christians have gathered to celebrate the Eucharist and build a community of faith among themselves. To put this in another way, for more than seventeen centuries people have judged this to be a sacred place where they encounter the mystery of God’s presence here on this earth.

All three Scripture readings for today’s liturgy speak of this sacred presence of God in terms of a temple: a building dedicated to God, the people themselves being the “temple of God” and the body of Jesus Christ crucified and raised up. We Catholics value highly these sacred signs of God’s presence among us here on earth. We have a special word for them; we call them sacraments. The Church directs that the building or temple where these sacred signs or sacraments are celebrated is always to be constructed with care and is meant to be a constant reminder, generation after generation, that God lives among his people. Our parish Building and Planning Committee kept this carefully in mind when we constructed our new church sanctuary several years ago. It might be well to remember a part of the prayer we said together as the planning process was taking place: “Lord, help us to see that what we must build is not just brick and stone, but love, compassion, and understanding among all people. We are building Your holy city.”

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!!!
SHARING SUNDAY ~ DECEMBER 13 & 14
Each year during Advent our parish makes a special effort to share our blessings with other parishes in the Galveston-Houston Archdiocese. Through our annual Sharing Sunday we are able to help local parishes distribute food and gifts to needy families. Gifts are needed for children, adults, and senior citizens. Please wrap and tag these gifts with the age and gender of the recipient (for example, boy age 10-12). Grocery items are also needed but do not need to be wrapped. Take time to discuss with your family ways that your Christmas can be shared with other families.

ADOPT A FAMILY: Through the St. Martha Conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, our church assists many families during the Christmas season. This year, we’d like to again give our parishioners the opportunity to adopt one of these families from our area. This will be done in connection with Sharing Sunday, December 13th and 14th, and all gifts will be brought up to the altar on that weekend. If you are interested, please contact Alice Jones at 281-361-6181, or by e-mail at jjones@kingwoodcable.com.

BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE: The Book of Remembrance will be in the back of the Church for you to write in names of family members or friends who have died.

SPECIAL BULLETIN DEADLINE: The deadline to submit information for the Nov. 30th bulletin is Wednesday, Nov. 19th, at 11:00 a.m. Please submit your information to Jodi at jodis@stmartha.com.

Please keep these faithful servants in your prayers.

PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION: Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration is personal time in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament in our Adoration Chapel, located in the back of the church. Adorers commit to one hour each week to spend time in the presence of Christ, strengthening their personal relationship with Him. In the month of October, we had 1,293 hours logged with our regular committed adorers. In addition to this, we had 488 visitors! Our visitors pray for varying amounts of time, so it is impossible for us to give an exact number of hours devoted by them. However, their presence is still a huge statement to the power of prayer and the devotion of our parish to this ministry. We are also so proud of the children who come to pray on Tuesday mornings during their weekly adoration hour! All involved in Eucharistic Adoration bring blessings to the entire parish through their devotion and prayer. Your family is encouraged to attend together at any time.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS BLOOD DRIVE: Thank you very much for such a wonderful blood drive (held on Oct. 26th). We collected a total of 92 blood components from a total of 78 donors. This was the biggest drive of the year. In January we collected 90.

We are going to save and sustain the lives of many in our community, thanks to you and your peers. God bless you. Every donation can save up to 3 lives. That could be 276 lives we get to save.

STEWARDSHIP SAINT FOR NOVEMBER

Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini

St. Frances Cabrini was the first American citizen to be elevated to sainthood. Born in northern Italy in 1850, she was one of 13 children. When she was 18, she wanted to become a nun but was unable to because of poor health. She worked on a farm with family members until she was asked to teach in a girls’ school which she did for six years. Her bishop asked her to establish a religious community and she founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart to care for poor children in schools and hospitals.

Sister Frances Cabrini dreamt of being a missionary in China, but Pope Leo XIII had other plans for her. He asked her to travel to the United States of America and minister to the Italian immigrant community. She made that journey in 1889 with six members of her community.

Said to have possessed remarkable administrative abilities, Frances Cabrini was responsible for the establishment of nearly seventy orphanages, schools and hospitals, scattered over eight countries in Europe, North America and in parts of Latin America.

There is much that can be learned first-hand about Mother Cabrini because of the letters and diaries she left behind. A very prayerful person, she was able to accomplish in her work what others said could not be done. And even as she was maintaining schools and hospitals and in charge of hundreds of nuns, she was ever mindful to care for the poor, the homeless and immigrants who were without jobs.

Frances Cabrini’s legacy continues today through the Missionary Sisters, their lay collaborators and in the innumerable religious institutions that bear her name. Her charism continues to inspire thousands who serve the poor in schools, hospitals and other ministries around the world.

St. Frances Cabrini died in Chicago on December 23, 1917 at the age of 67. She was proclaimed a saint by Pope Pius XII in 1946. She is the patron saint of immigrants and her feast is celebrated on November 13.

Fr. Chester Borski

Para la familia de la parroquia de Santa Marta,
Este fin de semana es una ocasión en la que la Iglesia interrumpe el calendario litúrgico normal (es el 32º domingo del Tiempo Ordinario) y nos pide celebrar la fiesta de la Dedicación de la Basílica Lateranense. Conmemoramos la consagración de la inmensa catedral o basílica de San Juan de Roma, que fue construido por Constantino el Grande a principios del siglo cuarto. Constantino fue el emperador romano pagano que experimentó una conversión religiosa, puso fin a la terrible persecución de la Iglesia, y hizo legal ser cristiano en el Imperio Romano. La tradición nos dice que Constantino, en preparación para la batalla del Puente Milvio sobre el río Tíber, tuvo una visión en la que vio a Cristo en un sueño y le dijo que pintara una cruz en los escudos de su ejército. Mientras que en la oración antes de la batalla, el emperador vio una cruz sobre el sol con la inscripción: "En este signo, vencerás". Constantino marcó su conversión y esta importante victoria por el sol con la inscripción: "En este signo, vencerás". Constantino marcó su conversión y esta importante victoria por la puesta en marcha de la construcción de una catedral a las afueras de las murallas de la antigua Roma, cerca de lo que se llama la Puerta de León. Durante muchos siglos antes de la construcción de la Basílica San Pedro, San Juan de Letrán fue la catedral del Papa y sigue siendo hoy en día y se conoce como la "Iglesia madre de la cristianidad". Fue allí donde los reyes fueron coronados, se firmaron los tratados, se reunieron los concilios ecuménicos, y el curso del cristianismo y de la civilización occidental se trazaron. Hay una dimensión a esta celebración que nos impacta hoy en nuestra propia vida de fe. Desde hace más de dieciséis años y medio en este mismo lugar los seres humanos han sido bautizados, los pecados han sido perdonados en la confesión, y los cristianos se han reunido para celebrar la Eucaristía y construir una comunidad de fe entre sí. Para poner esto de otra manera, por más que dieciséis siglos la gente ha considerado que se trata de un lugar sagrado donde se encuentran con el misterio de la presencia de Dios aquí en la tierra.

Las tres lecturas bíblicas de la liturgia de hoy hablan de esa presencia sagrada de Dios en términos de un templo: un edificio dedicado a Dios, los propios siendo el "templo de Dios" y el cuerpo de Jesucristo crucificado y resucitado. Nosotros los católicos valoramos altamente estos signos sagrados de la presencia de Dios entre nosotros aquí en la tierra. Tenemos una palabra especial para ellos; los llamamos sacramentos. La Iglesia ordena que el edificio o templo donde se celebran estos signos sagrados o sacramentos se construyen con cuidado y pretende ser un recordatorio constante, generación tras generación, que Dios vive entre su pueblo. Nuestro Comité de Construcción y Planificación parroquial mantuvo esto muy en cuenta cuando construimos nuestra nueva iglesia santa María hace varios años. Puede ser bueno recordar una parte de la oración que dijimos juntos como el proceso de planificación que se lleva a cabo: "Señor, ayudanos a ver que lo que tenemos que construir no es sólo ladrillo y piedra, pero el amor, la compasión y la comprensión entre todas las personas. Estamos construyendo TU santa ciudad".

Fr. Chester Borski

32º Domingo Ordinario
Reflexión sobre las lecturas:
Hoy leímos sobre la parábola de las diez doncellas y sus lámparas de aceite. El mensaje de esta parábola es que tenemos que estar preparados todo el tiempo para nuestro encuentro con Jesús: No sabemos ni la hora ni el día en que ese encuentro sucederá y por eso tenemos que estar en Gracia con Dios para poder ir al cielo. Si lo que queremos es ir al cielo y resucitar con Jesús, tenemos entonces que invertir parte de nuestro tiempo en conocer mejor a Jesús en esta vida, a través de las Escrituras, la oración y los sacramentos. Estar en Gracia con Dios, libres de pecado mortal, requiere oración y sacrificio para evitar las tentaciones y, también, un espíritu arrepentido después de pecar, para pedir perdón y reconciliarnos con Dios a través del sacramento de la Confesión. Aprendamos del Salmista cuando recita: “Mi alma está sedienta de ti, Señor, Dios mío”. Tengamos sed de Dios y saciemos esa sed en la oración.

Compromiso de la semana: Pasaré tiempo en oración con Jesús y haré un buen examen de conciencia para confesarme.
