The disciples on the road to Emmaus walked and talked with Jesus all day long, but it was not until they offered Him hospitality and He blessed and broke the bread that they recognized Him. Simple acts of loving kindness still reveal the presence of God in our midst.

Please note: The installation of the stained glass windows in the church cupola will take place the week of May 8 - May 12. During this time the daily Mass will be held in the Chapel on the Woodland Hills Campus. Please note, there will be limited space and seating. We are sorry for any inconveniences this may cause you.
To the parish family of St. Martha,

The Gospel account chosen for the 3rd Sunday of Easter is taken from Luke 24 and is one of the most moving stories of the early disciples’ Easter experience. Most know this as the “Road to Emmaus” story. It tells of two disciples on a journey “on that very day” (i.e. the first Easter Sunday) and how they come to recognize the Risen Lord in “the breaking of the bread.” There are several important themes highlighted in this account: the Easter faith of the early disciples, the importance of the Eucharist as a preeminent moment for the Church to encounter the Risen Christ, and the recurring theme of a journey in the Gospel of Luke. These two disciples were overcome with grief and were at the point of disillusionment when a stranger joins them on the road. As they pour out their hearts to the stranger about the events that led up to the death of Jesus on the cross, they pause on their journey for a meal and for much needed rest. The stranger began to explain the Scriptures to them and “while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him.” It is at this moment that their physical journey ended and their spiritual journey began. The text tells us that “they set out at once and returned to Jerusalem” where they joined the rest of the Church to rejoice in the Good News of the resurrection and embrace the mission of announcing the presence of the Risen Jesus to the world.

While the story is named the “Road to Emmaus,” the two disciples never got there. When we reflect on the fact that the whole narrative in the Gospel of Luke focuses on Jerusalem as the destination of Jesus, it seems that Jerusalem must become our spiritual destiny as well. Jerusalem is the place where the paschal mystery unfolds and salvation is won for us by the passion, death, and resurrection of Jesus. The story might be better called the “Road Back to Jerusalem” because these two disciples allowed their pain and disappointment to lead them away from Jerusalem and the meaning of the saving events that took place there. This insight might have special significance for us as well. In life we too make the journey of faith frequently filled with disappointment, despair, and defeat. It is the gift of the Eucharist and the Lord’s abiding presence in the Church that bring us back to the source of new life and our missionary role of announcing to others: “Jesus Christ is risen from the dead. Alleluia! Alleluia!”

Ministry Handbook Advertising Opportunity
We are in the process of updating our annual Ministry Handbook for the church. This book will contain important information regarding St. Martha’s various ministries, organizations, and committees. This book is being provided and direct-mailed to each family at no cost to our church, and it is again being subsidized by local businesses that advertise. If you own or manage a business and would like to find out about advertising in our book, please call Jodi at the Parish Office, 281-358-6637, ext. 201.
St. Martha’s youth will be participating in Shine Catholic Work Camp Mission trip. High School students will be attending SHINE Catholic Work Camps in McAllen, TX (June 5 – 10). We are excited to be serving the needy and elderly as representatives of St. Martha Parish. You can help us by donating to Operation Paintbrush or participating in the Car Wash on April 30. Donation boxes will be set up in the narthex for your donation, as well as representatives at each exit to assist in collecting donation items. Ways to donate….

- Supplies, such as, paint brushes, rollers, work gloves, painters tape, scrapers, spackle, safety goggles, gardening tools, trash bags, etc.
- Gift cards to Home Depot or Lowe’s
- Monetary donations
- Full or partial scholarship (total trip cost - $375)

The supplies and funds collected assist us in giving scholarships, purchasing supplies, and in getting to the locations. If you would like to have your car washed, the youth will be in the parking lot near the rectory from 10 AM – 2 PM. Please feel free to drop your car off during Mass and have a sparkling clean car when you return! All proceeds will go towards assisting the youth with the cost of the trip. Thank you for supporting St. Martha’s youth in serving those in need.

A Stewardship Prayer for May: Heavenly Father, Your Son ascended in great triumph to sit at your right hand. You sent your Spirit to watch over us, guide us and teach us to be better stewards of your abundant gifts. May this Spirit of wisdom make us better stewards of our planet. May your Spirit increase our awareness of the dignity of every human life, and show us the way to be better stewards of our neighbor. And through your Spirit, may we be inspired every day to live in accordance with the Gospel, and to give witness to our risen Lord. We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.
A la familia parroquial de Santa Marta,

El relato evangélico escogido para el tercer domingo de Pascua se toma de Lucas 24 y es una de las historias más conmovedoras de la experiencia pascual de los primeros discípulos. La mayoría lo saben cómo la historia de "Camino a Emaús". Se trata de dos discípulos en un viaje "en ese mismo día" (es decir, el primer Domingo de Pascua) y cómo llegan a reconocer al Señor Resucitado en "el rompimiento del pan". Hay algunos temas importantes que sobresalen en este relato: La fe pascal de los primeros discípulos, la importancia de la Eucaristía como momento preeminente para que la Iglesia se encuentre con el Cristo resucitado y el tema recurrente de un viaje en el Evangelio de Lucas. Estos dos discípulos estaban sobrecogidos de pena y estaban en el punto de desilusión cuando un extraño se les une en el camino. Mientras derraman sus corazones al extraño sobre los acontecimientos que llevaron a la muerte de Jesús en la cruz, hacen una pausa en su viaje para comer y tener un descanso muy necesario. El extraño comenzó a explicarles las Escrituras y "mientras él estaba con ellos a la mesa, tomó pan, dijo la bendición, la partió y se los dio. Con eso sus ojos se abrieron y le reconocieron". Es en este momento que su viaje físico terminó y su viaje espiritual comenzó. El texto nos dice que "partieron de inmediato y regresaron a Jerusalén" donde se unieron al resto de la Iglesia para regocijarse en la Buena Nueva de la resurrección y abrazar la misión de anunciar la presencia del Jesús Resucitado al mundo.

Aunque la historia se llama "Camino a Emaús", los dos discípulos nunca llegaron allí. Cuando reflexionamos sobre el hecho de que toda la narrativa del Evangelio de Lucas se centra en Jerusalén como el destino de Jesús, parece que Jerusalén debe convertirse también en nuestro destino espiritual. Jerusalén es el lugar donde se desarrolla el misterio pascual y la salvación nos es ganada por la pasión, muerte y resurrección de Jesús. La historia podría ser mejor llamada el "camino de regreso a Jerusalén" porque estos dos discípulos permitieron que su dolor y decepción los llevara lejos de Jerusalén y el significado de los eventos salvíficos que tuvieron lugar allí. Esta visión puede tener un significado especial para nosotros también. En la vida también hacemos el camino de la fe frecuentemente lleno de decepción, desesperación y derrota. Es el don de la Eucaristía y la presencia permanente del Señor en la Iglesia que nos devuelve a la fuente de una nueva vida y al papel misionero de anunciar a los demás: "Jesucristo ha resucitado de entre los muertos. ¡Aleluya! ¡Aleluya!"
