To the parish family of St. Martha,

The message in the Scripture readings for the 5th Sunday of Easter is about the gift of God’s grace which calls us to a new life in Christ. The Gospel account from John speaks of the fruitful growth of the branches that are connected to the vine. This is really a description of those who are baptized into Christ Jesus and who accept the challenge to build the kingdom of God by remaining open and accepting of the presence of Christ in their lives. “Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me. I am the vine, you are the branches.” The second reading reminds us that attachment to Christ demands that we put our faith into practice: “Children, let us love not in word or speech but in deed and in truth” (1 John 3:18). This teaching is John the Evangelist’s beautiful explanation of the core meaning of our faith centered on Christ and how this faith leads to action and involvement in the community.

Belief and love; word and deed; faith and good works. In the Catholic tradition these dual elements are bound together as one reality: a committed life of faith lived as a missionary disciple of Jesus Christ. For a Catholic faith, or being attached to the vine who is Christ, is not just about having a relationship with God. Faith is also a virtue that determines our relationship and behavior towards others and how we view ourselves. Faith gives us a new understanding of the people around us who make up the world. Every human being ever created was created in the image and likeness of God and every person deserves our acceptance, respect, and loving service. In addition every person is invited to share in the life of Christ. When we come to see ourselves in the Church as grafted into the vine (Christ), we come to realize that we are to spend our lives assisting others to embrace this reality of new life as well. We have been given a mission and that mission is to evangelize the world by the way we live out the teaching of Jesus. Recently Pope Francis has published a magnificent document called Gaudete et Exsultate (“Rejoice and Be Glad”) which recommends practical ways we can do so. He explains that by living the Beatitudes in everyday life we embrace the universal call to holiness and we help bring about the kingdom of God. I strongly encourage you to read and reflect on this highly readable document and share it with family and friends.

Fr. Chester Borski

FEAST OF THE ASCENSION:
The Celebration of the Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord has been transferred to the Seventh Sunday of Easter in the dioceses of Texas including the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. St. Martha Catholic School Local Advisory Board Discernment

Each year we conduct a prayerful discernment process to select new members to serve on our parish School Advisory Board. This is a wonderful opportunity to exercise your stewardship gift of talent. The term of service is three years. The date for the discernment process for persons considering a position on the St. Martha Catholic School Advisory Board is Tuesday, May 15, 6—8 PM in the Library of the school. Please contact the principal, Mrs. Munsch, at the school office, 281-358-5523 or by e-mail at munschern@stmarthacs.org by Monday, May 7 to have your name added to the list of interested candidates and receive additional information.

Registered parishioners in full communion with the Catholic Church are eligible to serve on our advisory board. If you have questions, please feel free to contact Mrs. Jessica Munsch.

YAS M

Young Adults of St. Martha

Prayer* Service* Fellowship* Friends* Sports* Spirituality

We are a group of young adults ages 18 to 35ish, both Kingwood natives and recent transplants, who share fellowship, prayer, meals, and laughs. We run a variety of events including bible studies, service events, potlucks and social outings. It is a great way to advance your spiritual life, make new friends and become part of a community. Here are some of our upcoming events:

- Bible Study: We host a bible study every Monday night at 7 PM in the church. It is a relaxed atmosphere. All are welcome to attend, it does not matter where you are at in your spiritual journey!
- Camping: We are planning on doing a late spring/early summer camping trip, as well as a fall camping trip. Please check back for more details! Please subscribe to our email list via Flocknote-new.flocknote.com/stmartha/YASIMYoungAdults/ or visit www.facebook.com/groups/YASIM/ to stay informed of upcoming events. For questions about any events, please email youngadults@stmartha.com.

Texans Recovering Together

Texans Recovering Together was developed to assist individuals and families who were affected by Tropical Storm Harvey that occurred in Harris County on August 2017. This program is designed to provide services to survivors located in the Harris County area. Texans Recovering Together works under the auspices of The Harris Center for Mental Health and IDD (The Harris Center), through the Texas Department of State Health Services. Funds for this program are provided by the Federal Emergency Management Administration (“FEMA”) and Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (“SAMHSA”).

Our team provides outreach and counseling services to those affected by the disaster, offering in-home crisis counseling and resource referrals free of charge. Examples include but are not limited to:

- Resource referrals—Providing survivors with community resources aimed at assisting them with their immediate needs, including food, clothing, furniture, rental assistance, medical and mental health support.
- Skill building—Educational session which provides survivors with information on what to expect following a traumatic event and how to manage stress reactions. Most people experience some stress reactions following a trauma, such as nightmares, flashbacks, difficulty sleeping, and feeling detached.
- Grief and Loss—Encouragement and support to individuals with residual grief loss issues. Education on the grief process, coping strategies, and awareness of common obstacles of the grieving process.
- Common reactions to disasters—Educational session designed to build awareness in survivors about normal reactions to a disaster, including direct or vicarious experiences.
- Psychological First Aid—Psychological first aid is an evidence-informed modular approach for assisting people in the immediate aftermath of disaster and terrorism to reduce initial distress and to foster short and long-term adaptive functioning.
- Crisis Counseling and Intervention—It aims to reduce the intensity of an individual's emotional, mental, physical and behavioral reactions to a crisis. Another purpose is to help individuals return to their level of functioning before the crisis.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Texans Recovering Together via email at trt@mhmraharris.org or at 844-279-6036. You can also contact Sr. Francisca at 281-358-6637, ext. 275.

SAVE THE DATE!!!!!
FOOD FAIR AT ST. MARTHA’S
May 23, 11 AM—1 PM
4301 Woodridge Parkway

Please note: Volunteers are needed to help with this event. Call Clara Moffet at 832-846-1571 for more information.

St. Martha’s 2nd Family Ministry consists of a group of volunteers who provide personal presence and assistance to make life better for the weak and vulnerable and for those who serve them. Through simple acts of kindness, team members enable care “partners” to retain their independence and self-esteem while offering primary caregivers respite from the demands of caring for a loved one. If you or someone you know could benefit from 2nd Family Ministry, please contact Sharon Voorhees at StMartha2ndfamily@gmail.com. This ministry is also looking for additional volunteers.

Vocations Corner

WOMEN SEEKING is a gathering for single women ages 18 and up who are interested in learning more about religious life. Sisters from different religious communities will be present. A Stewardship Prayer for May: Heavenly Father, Your Son ascended in great triumph to sit at your right hand. You sent your Spirit to watch over us, guide us and teach us to be better stewards of your abundant gifts. May this Spirit of wisdom make us better stewards of our planet. May your Spirit increase our awareness of the dignity of every human life, and show us the way to be better stewards of our neighbor. And through your Spirit, may we be inspired every day to live in accordance with the Gospel, and to give witness to our risen Lord. We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.
PERPETUAL EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

“Could you not watch one hour with Me?”

Our parish is incredibly blessed to have Perpetual Eucharistic Adoration available in our adoration Chapel 24 hours a day. Jesus dwells in the Blessed Sacrament because of His infinite love for each of us, He is always present there in the Blessed Sacrament patiently waiting for us to come and spend time with Him. Listed below are hours that are most in need of adorers at this time. However, please note that no hour is really ever “filled” because parishioners are always invited to choose an hour that works best for them, regardless of whether or not there are other adorers already there in prayer. Both regular adorers and substitutes are needed this time. Even if you do not have a regular hour, please feel free to visit our Blessed Lord at any time knowing that He is always waiting for us with joyful anticipation.

ADORACIÓN EUCARÍSTICA PERPETUA

“¿No pudiste velar conmigo ni siquiera una hora?”

Nuestra parroquia es grandemente bendecida de contar con Adoración Eucarística Perpetua en nuestra capilla de adoración veinticuatro horas al día. Jesús mora en el Santísimo Sacramento debido a su amor infinito por cada uno de nosotros. Él siempre espera pacientemente a que estemos ante su presencia y le acompañemos.

En la lista a continuación están las horas más necesitadas de adoradores en este momento.
Te invitamos a que participes en este hermoso ministerio. Síntete libre de venir y adorar a nuestro Señor Jesucristo de acuerdo a tu tiempo y disponibilidad, independientemente de si hay o no otros adoradores presentes en oración. Jesús siempre nos espera con gozo anticipado.

Children’s Adoration Hour Every Tuesday—10 AM in the Chapel

Bring your children and grandchildren to a special hour with Christ. They will learn to offer prayer intentions, grow in their love for Christ, his mother Mary, and our Church and the Pope. We have time for silent prayer, a decade of the rosary, we talk about saints and reflect on gospel passages and sing songs. Parents and kids receive many graces from spending an hour a week with Christ. We hope you will come and see what it’s all about. Contact Kristen Johnson at Kristen_alley@yahoo.com or 281-713-2518 if you have any questions.

Holy Hour of Adoration for Vocations
Exposition & Benediction
- Second Tuesday: 7:30 - 8:30 PM
- Second Friday: 9 - 10 AM

Sponsored by Sierra Club Northeast of Houston
Ministerio Hispano

A la familia parroquial de Santa Marta,
El mensaje en las lecturas de las Escrituras para el quinto domingo de Pascua se trata del regalo de la gracia de Dios que nos llama a una nueva vida en Cristo. El relato del Evangelio de Juan habla del crecimiento fructífero de las ramas que están conectadas a la vida. Esta es realmente una descripción de aquellos que son bautizados en Cristo Jesús y que aceptan el desafío de construir el reino de Dios permaneciendo abiertos y aceptando la presencia de Cristo en sus vidas. “Permanece en mí, mientras permanezco en ti. Así como una rama no puede dar fruto por sí misma a menos que permanezca en la vid, tampoco tú puedes a menos que permanezcas en mí. Yo soy la vid, ustedes son las ramas. “La segunda lectura nos recuerda que el apago a Cristo exige que pongamos nuestra fe en práctica:” Hijos, no amemos ni en palabra ni en charla, sino en hechos y en verdad”. (I Juan 3:18). Esta enseñanza es la hermosa explicación de Juan el evangelista y el significado central de nuestra fe centrada en Cristo y que esta fe conduce a la acción y participación en la comunidad.
Creencia y amor; palabra y obra; fe y buenas obras. En la tradición católica, estos elementos duales están unidos como una sola realidad: una vida de fe comprometida vivida como un discípulo misionero de Jesucristo. Para una fe católica, o estar apegado a la vida que es Cristo, no se trata solo de tener una relación con Dios. La fe es también una virtud que determina nuestra relación y comportamiento hacia los demás y cómo nos vemos a nosotros mismos. La fe nos da una nueva comprensión de las personas que nos rodean que componen el mundo. Cada ser humano fue creado a la imagen y semejanza de Dios y cada persona merece nuestra aceptación, respeto y servicio amoroso. Además, cada persona está invitada a compartir la vida de Cristo. Cuando llegamos a vernos a nosotros mismos en la Iglesia como injertados en la vida (Cristo), nos damos cuenta de que debemos pasar nuestras vidas ayudando a otros a abrazar también esta realidad de la nueva vida. Nos han dado una misión y esa misión es evangelizar al mundo por la manera en que vivimos las enseñanzas de Jesús. Recientemente, el Papa Francisco ha publicado un magnífico documento llamado “Gaude te et Exsultate” (“Regocijate y sé feliz”) que recomienda formas prácticas de hacerlo. El explica que, al vivir las bienaventuranzas en la vida cotidiana, abrazamos el llamado universal a la santidad y ayudamos a lograr el reino de Dios. Les recomiendo leer y reflexionar sobre este documento importante y compartirlo con familiares y amigos.

CÓMO ANIMAR LA VOCACIÓN RELIGIOSA DE SUS HIJOS?

¿Cómo animar la vocación religiosa de sus hijos?

Cuando los jóvenes revelan una atracción a la vida religiosa a sus familias, a menudo los padres pueden ser sorprendidos por la manifestación repentina de su hijo de la fe, preguntándose si se pudiera confundir con un entusiasmo momentáneo, juvenil. A continuación explicaremos algunos de los miedos que algunos padres han expresado durante muchos años sobre el llamado de sus hijos a la vida religiosa.

1. Alegría, llena de gracia! Aunque al principio puede causar asombro, la vocación de un hijo es algo maravilloso.
2. No temas! Esta frase se repite cientos de veces en las Sagradas Escrituras. ¿Por qué deben de temer?
3. Preguntar (sin ser curioso). Una gran cantidad de perseverancia sobre el futuro de su hijo dependerá, por tanto, la debida orientación y apoyo (y la oración!) de su familia.
4. No sea el juez de la vocación de su hijo. Usted no se ha llamado a desafiar la vocación de su hijo. No pertenece a usted, Dios se lo dio a usted.
5. No trate de forzar nada. Si es la voluntad de Dios, es la voluntad de Dios, pero si no es así, no hay nada que pueda hacer para obligar a su hijo a continuar en una vocación que no es de él, de lo contrario podría causarle algún daño.
6. No obstante, pida a Dios en la oración que despierte la vocación de sus hijos. ¿Cómo Dios va a despertar las vocaciones si no le preguntamos y oramos por ella?
7. Prepárese para ver feliz a su hijo. Muy feliz. La alegría es siempre la confirmación de que su vocación es genuina!
8. Y, usted también! Prepárese a ser muy, muy feliz! Dios es abundante en generosidad!

Legión de María—Somos una organización apostólica de laicos en la iglesia Católica, aprobada por los últimos tres Papas y endosada por el Concilio Vaticano II.

Realizamos reuniones semanales en donde se reza el Santo Rosario, se asignan trabajos legionarios y se estudian temas informativos para hacer más eficaz el apostolado. Nuestros trabajos consisten en evangelizar y santificar hombres mediante visitas a: familias, cárcel, toques y portas, llevando a la Virgen peregrina a los hogares, entre otras actividades recomendadas por la parroquia.

Les invitamos a que conozcan más y formen parte de este hermoso ministerio que se reúne todos los viernes a las 7PM. En el salón #2 de la antigua iglesia Sta. Martha en el 3702 Woodland Hills Dr. Para más información pueden contactar a estos números 281-728-9843 Verónica Reyes ó 859-250-3687 Mildred Garcia
