Message from the Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

Today’s readings would be awesome ones to preach about money, but since I recently did that, I won’t do it again. You’re welcome! 😊 The two widows we hear about in the readings do ask us an important question: are we giving enough? The poor widow in the first reading gave all her remaining food to prepare a meal for Elijah and the poor widow in the Gospel put two small coins in the offertory. But both of these poor widows gave all they had to others! Jesus points it out to the disciples in the Gospel and he points it out to us. He asks us, are we giving all we can to help others? I’m sure that when we look inside ourselves, we can identify ways we can give more of what we have. It doesn’t have to just be money, but are we giving our very best to God with our time, talent and our gifts?

As many of you have seen, our new chapel has begun construction! A friendly reminder to all of our parishioners that the green fence is there for our safety. We are asked not to go inside the fence so that no one gets hurt. We pray for the safety of all those working on the project so that our new chapel will be a place where we can worship our Lord!

Fr. T.J. Dolce

Donations for Discalced Carmelite Nuns in New Caney
November 17-18, 2018

During this season of Thanksgiving – let us acknowledge the work of the Carmelite Nuns and all prayers and works that they do for us and our church community. They have prayed for many of our personal intentions and those of the community with love and devotion to Jesus Christ, Our Lord, and our Blessed Mother Mary. As a show of appreciation and thanks, let us support them in their mission of love, charity and their dedication to prayer.

In the past, our parish has supported them with an annual Food Drive and Gift cards held at the weekend masses during the month of November. Since the Monastery is for sale, and the anticipated move to San Antonio, the best way to help support them is with a monetary donation and/or gift cards to Walmart, Sam’s, Kroger or Randall’s.

Checks can be made payable and mailed to: Discalced Carmelite Nuns
1100 Parthenon Place, New Caney, TX 77357. OR donations/gift cards can be put in an envelope and dropped in church collection or dropped off at the church office. Thank you for supporting our Carmelite Nuns!
