FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
FEBRUARY 3, 2019

FAITH, HOPE, LOVE REMAIN, THESE THREE;
BUT THE GREATEST OF THESE IS LOVE.

1 CORINTHIANS 13:13
We are delighted to welcome each and every one who has come to worship with us today. Whether you’re a longtime parishioner, a newcomer, or just visiting, know that our desire is to extend God’s loving presence to all.

If you would like to register, you can download the registration form from our website, www.stmartha.com, or find a copy in the narthex on the Welcome Kiosk.

Dear Parish Family,

This week, the Archdiocese and the 14 other diocese in Texas released the names of priests who have been credibly accused of abusing minors. It was shocking to see so many names of priests in Texas who have betrayed the trust of the people they promised to serve. It has been a tough couple of weeks for me preparing to see this list because the only acceptable number of priest who have abused is zero. Unfortunately, that was not the case. I am hurting, and I know you are too. I want to invite you that if you need to talk to someone, please call the parish office, and we’ll make sure a priest, a deacon, or a spiritual director can see you and walk with you in your pain. Together, we pray for all who have been hurt by the terrible abuse scandal that has rocked the Church, and we pray that this never happens again. Later this month, the Holy Father will meet with bishops from all over the world to discuss a plan for the Church to put an end to these senseless crimes. Let us join our prayers together that this meeting may be fruitful so that no one is ever hurt again from these types of situations.

United in prayer,
Fr. TJ

Welcome Vision Statement: Baptized into Christ Jesus, we worship as one and reach out to all.

Message from our Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

This week, the Archdiocese and the 14 other diocese in Texas released the names of priest who have been credibly accused of abusing minors. Sunday Readings and Reflection

Today’s Readings

First Reading — I am with you to deliver you, says the Lord (Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19).

Psalm — I will sing of your salvation (Psalm 71).

Second Reading — If I have all faith so as to move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing (1 Corinthians 12:31 — 13:13 [13:4-13]).

Gospel — No prophet is accepted in the prophet’s hometown (Luke 4:21-30).

An Ongoing Mission

In his hometown synagogue, Jesus’ neighbors are amazed by his words. Nevertheless, they remind each other, “Is this not Joseph’s son?”

Surely the people know who he is. The carpenter’s son. The young man who had learned in this very synagogue. The boy down the street.

Conflict arises as Jesus begins to define himself in a new way. When he compares himself to the ancient prophets Elijah and Elisha the tensions grow. The tensions multiply when Jesus begins to tell of a new mission for God’s people: the good news of the scriptures is intended for all.

In his famous passage from the First Letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul reminds us of the eternal nature of love. Love does not come to an end. In today’s readings, we are reminded that, like love, Jesus’ mission cannot be contained. Jesus slips through the crowd of persecutors and moves on to new challenges. We are called to this same perseverance in the name of love.

Next Mass: Rt., FEB. 6

Community Life Ministries

Vocations Corner

Today we rejoice and celebrate World Day for Consecrated Life. Over the years, many men and women have chosen to live out their baptismal vocation by professing the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity, and obedience. They do this by joining a religious congregation, a secular institute, or through private vows. We pray for these people, especially St. Martha parishioner Christina Ann Girau, of the Apostles of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We ask God to bless our Church with others who will dedicate their lives to God’s service.

CHALICE FOR VOCATIONS:
Please join the GARCIA FAMILY in prayer this week as they host the Chalice and pray for vocations. Interested? Please contact Karen Ehlig at 281-813-3285 or by e-mail at karenehlig@gmail.com to schedule a week.
