Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are days of fast and abstinence.

Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence.

Fasting binds all persons who have completed their 18th birthday through those who have completed their 59th year, unless prevented by poor health. On days of fast, one full meal is allowed. Two other meals sufficient to maintain strength may be taken according to one’s own needs. Eating between meals is not allowed although fluids may be taken.

Abstinence binds all persons who have completed their 14th birthday, unless prevented by poor health. On days of abstinence during Lent, the consumption of meat of mammals or fowl is not allowed. The Church strongly encourages the observance of Friday abstinence throughout the year, but failure to do so is not regarded as sinful.

Lent is a penitential season and as such religious practice such as daily Mass, reception of the Sacrament of Penance, the devotion of the Stations of the Cross, works of charity and justice, and acts of self-denial are highly encouraged.

Message from the Cardinal

Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston
Office of the Cardinal

My dear friends in Christ,

The theme for the Diocesan Services Fund (DSF) this year is Do Not Neglect to Share What You Have. Hebrews 13:16 reminds us to “Keep doing good works and sharing your resources, for these are the kinds of sacrifices that please God.” If we are honest with ourselves we cannot just say what we have is our own but instead a gift from the Lord.

Sharing what you have through a gift to DSF helps fund programs such as the Office of the Permanent Diaconate. This year we celebrate the 50th anniversary of the introduction of permanent deacons into the life and ministry of our Archdiocese. The diaconate candidate is a man of God and a man of charity who spends six years studying and preparing to minister in our parishes, hospitals, prisons, and other places where people are in need in our local church. We have an increasing need for deacons and this office works hard in screening candidates, as well as training, forming and supporting deacons.

Ethnic Ministries is responsible for providing sacramental and pastoral care to a variety of cultures in our Archdiocese including those of African Descent as well as to those who are Chinese, Filipino, Hispanic, Indian, Indonesian, Korean, Polish and Vietnamese. It is our way to help keep the beauty of their ethnic traditions and reach out to as many Catholics as possible in our diverse city. Our efforts to serve the unique needs of these communities are ongoing with special emphasis on educating, retaining and expanding the youth, young adults and religious vocations.

Due to your support, the Office of Pro-Life Activities was able to kick off its new program, Jerome’s Hope, last year. This program helps parents experiencing a difficult pre-natal diagnosis or infant loss and provides comfort and support. Judging by the early response to these efforts this is a great need in our Archdiocese requiring our continued attention. Thank you for helping to make this a reality.

DSF continues to be the large service umbrella within the Archdiocese that binds us together in serving others and sharing what we have. I thank you for your gracious commitment to DSF. With gratitude to God for your faithful discipleship and praying for God’s abundant blessing upon you, I am

Your faithful Shepherd,

Daniel Cardinal DiNardo
Archbishop of Galveston-Houston
Queridos hermanos y hermanas en Cristo,

El tema del Fondo de Servicios Diocesanos (DSF) de este año es No negarnos a compartir lo que tenemos. Hebreos 13,16 nos recuerda “Y no se olviden de hacer el bien y de compartir, porque con tales sacrificios se agrada Dios.” Y si somos honestos con nosotros mismos, no podemos decir que lo que tenemos sea nuestro, sino en el fondo es un regalo del Señor.

Compartir lo que tenemos a través de un donativo al DSF ayuda a fondear programas como la oficina del Diaconado Permanente. Este año celebramos 50 años de la incorporación de diáconos permanentes en la vida y ministerio de nuestra arquidiócesis. Un candidato al diaconado es un hombre de Dios y un hombre de caridad, que dedica seis años de estudio y preparación para hacer ministerio en nuestras parroquias, hospitales, prisiones y otros lugares donde hay gente necesitada en nuestra iglesia local. Tenemos una necesidad creciente de diáconos y esta oficina trabaja muy duro en seleccionar, entrenar y formar candidatos y así como en apoyar a los diáconos en servicio.

El Ministerio Étnico se encarga de proveer cuidado sacramental y pastoral a la gran variedad de culturas en nuestra arquidiócesis, incluyendo aquellos de ascendente africano, chino, filipino, hispano, hindú, indonesio, coreano, polaco y vietnamita. Nuestro modo de actuar ayuda a conservar la belleza de sus tradiciones étnicas y alcanzar a tantos católicos como sea posible en nuestra diversa ciudad. Nuestros esfuerzos atienden las necesidades únicas de estas comunidades de modo continuo y hacen especial énfasis en educar, retener y expandir la fe de la juventud, los adultos jóvenes y las vocaciones religiosas.

Gracias a su apoyo el año pasado, la oficina de Pro Vida pudo lanzar su nuevo programa Jerome’s Hope. Este programa ayuda a papás y mamás experimentando dificultades por diagnósticos prenatales adversos o por la pérdida de sus pequeños, al otorgar consuelo y apoyo. Al observar la respuesta inicial a este esfuerzo, descubrimos la gran necesidad de atención constante que existe en nuestra arquidiócesis. Muchas gracias por ayudarnos a hacer realidad este servicio.

El DSF continúa siendo el gran paraguas de servicio en la arquidiócesis que nos une en atender a otros y compartir lo que tenemos. Agradezco su compromiso en la gracia para el DSF. Con la gratitud de Dios por su discipulado fiel y en oración por la bendición abundante de nuestro Señor sobre ustedes, quedo como

Su pastor en la fe,

Daniel Cardenal DiNardo

<td>Stewardship Prayer for March: God of mercy, You have given us this special time to reflect on our lives, believe in the Good News and draw closer to You. May this season of Lent help us be good stewards of this time: to fast and pray, be more generous and show others how to live in Christ. Let us see each day of this season as a new opportunity to renew our lives and gain a deeper appreciation of Your active presence in us and our community of faith. Give us the grace to see Your face in others, especially the poor and those who suffer. And through your Spirit, enkindle in us the fire of Your love so that we may be better stewards of Your redeeming work throughout the world. We ask this through Jesus Christ, Your Son. Amen.</td>
