Peter said to Jesus,
“Master, it is good that we are here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

Luke 9:33
We are delighted to welcome each and every one who has come to worship with us today. Whether you’re a longtime parishioner, a newcomer, or just visiting, know that our desire is to extend God’s loving presence to all.

If you would like to register, you can download the registration form from our website, www.stmartha.com, or find a copy in the narthex on the Welcome Kiosk.

Welcome Vision Statement: Baptized into Christ Jesus, we worship as one and reach out to all.

Dear Parish Family,

In today’s Gospel, we hear the story of the Transfiguration of Jesus. It is the story of how Jesus changes appearance right in front of his disciples and the voice of God can be heard from Heaven. Peter, James, and John were witnesses to a little glimpse of Heaven. My friends, we get a little glimpse of Heaven every time we come to Church. Jesus comes to us in the Eucharist and we are changed to become more like Him! This Lenten season gives us hope that we can become more like Jesus and hopefully join him one day in Heaven. Let us pray for each other that our Lenten sacrifices can help us change and become more like Jesus. We pray that we hear God’s voices saying to us, “This is my chosen child!”

Fr. TJ

PLEASE NOTE: The St. Martha Parish Pastoral Council represents the St. Martha community in providing counsel and consultation to Fr. TJ. Council members will be available in the Narthex before and after all masses the second Sunday each month.

Sunday Readings and Reflection

First Reading — The LORD made a covenant with Abram (Genesis 15:5-12, 17-18)

Psalm — The Lord is my light and my salvation (Psalm 27).

Second Reading — Our citizenship is in heaven (Philippians 3:17 — 4:1 [3:20 — 4:1]).

Gospel — Atop a mountain, Jesus was transfigured before Peter, James, and John (Luke 9:28b-36).

Stand Firm in the Lord

It is not hard to imagine, in this age of wars, evil groups bent on the destruction of humanity, and political follies, that the words of Saint Paul were so accurate, even for his time. It seems that the world never changes. Paul says, “Many . . . conduct themselves as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is their destruction . . . Their minds are occupied with earthly things” (Philippians 3:18, 19). The result is the destruction of innocent people and of the Earth itself. But Paul says to the Philippians, “our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ” (3:20). He will “change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body” (3:21). Note that he says “body” rather than “bodies.” He is talking about the whole community of believers, who, following the example of Jesus and of Paul, will come into the glory of God. So “stand firm in the Lord” (4:1).

Stewardship

2nd Sunday of Lent

In today’s second reading we learn that one of Saint Paul’s principles of Christian living is to watch and imitate other followers of Christ. There is a pattern for Christian living that Saint Paul wants others to discover and then imitate. This pattern includes a life of prayer, selflessness, sacrifice, and caring for others, including our family of faith. Good stewards choose their friends wisely. They cultivate friendships with other Christian stewards, spend time with them, observe how they live, ask questions about their faith and learn from them. Who are your friends? Are they good stewards of their faith? Are they those who can help you on your own journey of faith?

Prayer for Priests During Lent
O Jesus, our great High Priest, Hear my humble prayers on behalf of your priest, Father [N]. Give him a deep faith, a bright and firm hope and a burning love which will ever increase in the course of his priestly life. In his loneliness, comfort him. In his sorrows, strengthen him. In his frustrations, point out to him that it is through suffering that the soul is purified, and show him that he is needed by the Church, he is needed by souls, he is needed for the work of redemption.

O loving Mother Mary, Mother of Priests, take to your heart your son who is close to you because of his priestly ordination, and because of the power which he has received to carry on the work of Christ in a world which needs him so much. Be his comfort, be his joy, be his strength, and especially help him to live and to defend the ideals of consecrated celibacy. Amen

On April 5 our Parish Organist, Olga Wong, will be giving a beautiful performance of French music for the First Friday Organ Recital Series at the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart (1111 St Joseph Pkwy, Houston).

The recital begins at 12:45 pm (immediately following the 12:10 pm mass). Admission is free – please feel free to bring friends and family.

Children's Adoration Hour Every Tuesday—10 AM in the Chapel

Bring your children and grandchildren to a special hour with Christ. They will learn to offer prayer intentions, grow in their love for Christ, his mother Mary, and our Church and the Pope. We have time for silent prayer and a decade of the rosary. We talk about saints, reflect on gospel passages, and sing songs. Parents and kids receive many graces from spending an hour a week with Christ. We hope you will come and see what it's all about. Contact Kristen Johnson at Kristen_alley@yahoo.com or 281-713-2518 if you have any questions.

Here is the Communion antiphon for 5:30 Saturday, 7am, and 9am Masses this weekend. The cantor or choir will sing through it once first, after this, please join us in singing each additional repetition of the antiphon.

Mensaje del Pastor
Querida Familia Parroquial,
En el Evangelio de hoy, escuchamos la historia de la Transfiguración de Jesús. Es la historia de cómo Jesús cambia de apariencia frente a sus discípulos y como la voz de Dios se puede escuchar desde el Cielo. Pedro, Santiago y Juan fueron testigos de una pequeña visión del Cielo. Mis amigos, tenemos una pequeña visión del Cielo cada vez que venimos a la Iglesia. ¡Jesús viene a nosotros en la Eucaristía y somos cambiados para ser más como Él! En esta temporada de Cuaresma nos da la esperanza de poder ser más como Jesús y, ojalá, unirnos a él un día en el cielo. Oremos unos por otros para que nuestros sacrificios de Cuaresma puedan ayudarnos a cambiar y ser más como Jesús. Oremos también, para que escuchemos la voz de Dios que nos dicen: "¡Este es mi hijo elegido!"
