I GIVE YOU A NEW COMMANDMENT: LOVE ONE ANOTHER.

JOHN 13:34
Today's Readings

First Reading — Paul and Barnabas reported how God had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles (Acts 14:21-27).

Psalm — I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God (Psalm 145).

Second Reading — God’s dwelling is with the human race (Revelation 21:1-5a).

Gospel — This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another (John 13:31-33a).

Welcome

We are delighted to welcome each and every one who has come to worship with us today. Whether you’re a longtime parishioner, a newcomer, or just visiting, know that our desire is to extend God’s loving presence to all.

If you would like to register, you can download the registration form from our website, www.stmartha.com, or find a copy in the narthex on the Welcome Kiosk.

Vision Statement: Baptized into Christ Jesus, we worship as one and reach out to all.

Message from our Pastor

Dear Parish Family,

First of all, I want to say thanks for the incredible support that the parish has given in the midst of last week’s flooding. The prayers have really lifted the spirits of the faculty, staff, and school families who were affected by the flooding at St. Martha’s Catholic School. Even though the school suffered damage, they will be able to get back in their building before the end of school. And most importantly, no one was hurt and we still have faith in God. Several of our families in the parish are also suffering because they’ve been flooded. Many of us know that feeling all too well. We unite our suffering to theirs and ask for prayers during this tough time as so many of us are trying to rebuild. We also want to help them financially and with our labors, so if you have flooded, or know someone who has, please make sure they are in contact with the parish office. And if you want to help, we certainly can use volunteers as well. We are going to get through this and God is very good to us.

Also, we will continue to collect contact information from our parishioners at Mass this weekend. We haven’t done a parish database update since 2006, so we have some incorrect info. It will be a big help for us to have correct contact information for our parish family. Thank you for your support and helping us update our database.

May God bless us all!

Fr. TJ

Take Note

- Saturday, May 18, there will be NO confessions (Fr. TJ and Fr. Jonathan will be at the Transitional Diaconate Ordinations).
- Saturday, June 1, there will be NO First Saturday 8:30 a.m. Mass and NO confessions (Fr. TJ and Fr. Jonathan will be at the Priestly Ordinations).
- The St. Martha Parish Pastoral Council represents the St. Martha community in providing counsel and consultation to Fr. TJ. Council members will be available in the Narthex before and after all Masses the second Sunday each month. For more information email: stmartha.pastoral.council@gmail.com
- There has been an increase in reports of individuals impersonating one of our priests to solicit donations, normally in the form of gift cards. Please note, our priests would never make such an appeal. If you receive a fraudulent text or email, file a complaint with the attorney general’s Consumer Protection Division by calling toll free 1-800-621-0508, or file an online complaint at https://www.texasattorneygeneral.gov/consumer-protection/file-consumer-complaint
Stewardship

In today’s Gospel Jesus makes a bold and clear statement to his disciples. “I give you a new commandment: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.” We are called to love others as a sign of our discipleship in Jesus Christ. That includes even those “others” we might prefer to forget. We are so often tempted to draw lines between those who we will love and those who we consider not worthy of our love. This week take time to reflect on Jesus’ love command. How often do we heed Jesus’ love command? What change in our lives must take place in order for us to obey this command?

St. Vincent de Paul Society – St. Martha Conference
Black Bag Collection - May 18-19

The St. Vincent de Paul Society’s Black Bag Collection for the poor and needy will be held at all Masses this weekend. The collection will allow the Conference to continue to provide rental, utility, medical, and food assistance throughout the upcoming months to people in need in our area. In the Gospel today, Jesus says “I give you a new commandment: love one another….This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.” By your gift to the St. Vincent de Paul Black Bag you show that you have love for one another, especially those suffering and poor, and that indeed you are the disciple of Jesus. Thank You!

To love God and neighbor is not something abstract, but profoundly concrete; it means seeing in every person the face of the Lord to be served, to serve him concretely. --Pope Francis
