O Lord our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!

Psalm 8:2
Dear Parish Family,

I would like your help in welcoming John Clark, a seminarian for the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston who will be helping and serving at St. Martha’s for the rest of the summer. John just finished his first year of seminary and will be around getting a glimpse of what parish life is like. Please say hi when you see him and assure him of your prayers for his discernment and formation as a seminarian. As you know, we need more priests to serve the Church and we are blessed that John is here with us this summer.

I would also like to wish a happy father’s day to all the dads who have played such a key role in our lives. We are grateful to God for their presence in our lives. We also thank God on this Trinity Sunday that he is God the Father and shows us the true example of fatherhood. We pray for all of our dads and father figures that they may reflect the love of God the Father to us.

God bless, and Happy Father’s day,
Fr. TJ
Sunday Readings and Reflection

Today's Readings

First Reading — The wisdom of God played on the surface of God’s earth, finding delight in the human race (Proverbs 8:22-31).
Psalm — O Lord, our God, how wonderful you name in all the earth! (Psalm 8).
Second Reading — The love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit (Romans 5:1-15).
Gospel — The Spirit of truth will guide you to all truth (John 16:12-15).

This is the Holy Trinity

Today we celebrate the Holy Trinity, one of the most confounding mysteries of our faith. Through this mystery we experience our relationship to God: Creator, Savior, and Holy Spirit. This relationship is not easy to understand or to describe. It does not become clearer through analysis. Its complexity mirrors the complexity of all our relationships. We understand our relationships with our spouses, our children, our parents, and our friends only through daily give-and-take, annual rituals, and the life-changing moments we share. We understand our relationships only as we live them. The relationships we have with those we love, and who love us, sustain us through an uncertain and difficult life. This is the Holy Trinity.

What is striking about today’s readings is that each is incomplete. What they do offer is a description of a moment in our relationship, a memory of a time and an event when our relationship made sense even though that sense may be beyond our ability to describe fully. Often that is all that our faith offers, that is, a memory of what is possible, what is promised, what has been given. A memory of eternity, of love beyond understanding is to be cherished and nurtured even if not fully understood. This is the Holy Trinity.

In the face of our country’s challenges, and challenges within the Church herself, Catholics find strength in the hope of Jesus Christ. We want to share that hope with everyone.

Religious freedom gives us the space to carry out the mission that Jesus has entrusted to the Church. Religious freedom means that Catholics, and all people of goodwill, are free to seek the truth and to live in accordance with that truth, and so to strengthen our common life as a nation.

Beginning June 22, the Feast of Saints Thomas More and John Fisher, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops celebrates Religious Freedom Week. In the midst of our current challenges, join us as we seek the kingdom and find Strength in Hope.

“In the pilgrimage of this life, hidden with Christ in God and free from enslavement to wealth, they aspire to those riches which remain forever and generously dedicate themselves wholly to the advancement of the kingdom of God and to the reform and improvement of the temporal order in a Christian spirit. Among the trials of this life they find strength in hope, convinced that ‘the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed in us’ (Rom. 8:18).”
