PRAYER TREE: 255-4600
Three times thankful. Thank You, Father, for Your great love in giving me my life, for Your great patience in preserving me despite my sinfulness, for Your protection in the past and for the opportunity to serve and honor You in the future. Thank You, Lord Jesus, for keeping me numerous times from sin and death by the toils of Your life, the sufferings of Your Passion, and by Your victorious Resurrection. Thank You, Holy Spirit of God, for bestowing so many graces upon my soul and for having so frequently renewed Your life within me. May my life, from now on, be a sign of my gratefulness.

The Blessed Trinity. Mystery is irresistible to human nature. We are intrigued by the pleasure of trying to solve them and awed by the mysteries we can’t solve. How joyful it is then, in Matthew 28:16-20, to find a mystery right in the heart of our Christian calling. Jesus told His disciples to “go to all peoples and baptize them in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.” There it is, the divine mystery of the Trinity, nestled at the heart of the work every Christian has been called to do. A mystery that makes us gasp in wonder, that will draw us back with curiosity when our awe wears into commonplace acceptance. A mystery planted at the root of our faith, to feed us, strengthen us, challenge, compel and comfort us.

Stewardship Opportunities:

Stewardship Thoughts: How much you have has nothing to do with generosity to God. If you don’t give of your time, talent and treasure with what you already have, you most likely won’t do it if you have more.

Vocation Views: Love abounds when forgiveness is experienced. Forgiveness frees one to follow Jesus. Rededicate your life to Jesus. (Luke 7:36-8:3)

A NEW WAY TO GIVE: ONLINE GIVING

Corpus Christi now offers online giving through our website:

Go to: www.corpuschristibismarck.com and click on the "Online Giving Button" on the home page of the Parish Website.

Marriage Moments: "Affliction produces endurance..." (Romans 5:3) Now that's not a happy thought! Who wants to suffer affliction? But, as much as we try to avoid physical or emotional pain, it happens. Share with your beloved a time that a hardship eventually made you stronger.

Parenting Pointers: Father’s Day. What did your own father teach you about being a father? Hopefully it was positive like fidelity, loyalty, protection, unconditional love. But even if your father was absent or flawed, you can still be inspired to be better with your own child. (Susan Vogt)

WAYS TO LIVE A HOLIER LIFE

When Jesus said we should be holy, He was just talking to His disciples, right? After all, how can regular people be holy?

1. Make time for prayer: Spending time together is the best way to get to know God better. Get up early, pause before meals, go to bed later.

2. Go on a personal retreat: Plan a pilgrimage to a holy site. Visit area shrines and other historical religious sites.

3. Keep the Sabbath. If you are on vacation, find a church locally to attend Mass. Make Sunday Mass the highlight of your week.

Your stepping stones back into life...

SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

Truth is what reveals reality
A powerful politician once asked a condemned man: “What is truth?” If Pilate had sought truth, he’d have recognized his prisoner and set Jesus—and himself—free. Dostoevsky warned what happens to those who lose contact with the truth: They “lose all respect for themselves and for others. And having no respect, they cease to love.” It’s easy for Pilate to condemn a man who doesn’t matter. Choose respect, choose love, and everyone begins to matter.

TODAY’S READINGS: Proverbs 8:22-31; Romans 5:1-5; John 16:12-15 (166). “But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth.”

Wage peace
Jesus’ call to nonviolence is often misinterpreted as passivity and weakness. Far from it! In the words of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, nonviolence does not mean surrendering to evil, but actively and courageously responding to it with good, “and thus breaking the chain of injustice.” It means being someone “who is convinced of God’s love and power, who is not afraid to confront evil with the weapons of love and truth alone.” Join what the Holy Father called the “Christian revolution” of loving your enemy and start waging peace.

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 6:1-10; Matthew 5:38-42 (365). “When someone strikes you on your right cheek, turn the other one to him as well.”

It rains on everybody
Jesus asks us to love people who’ve been hateful and pray for people who are hurting us. Why should we do such a thing? Because it makes us more like God—and after all, we are the children of God. God brings rain down on everybody indiscriminately, and sunshine, too. God does not withhold divine blessings from bad people and give them to good people, though you’d have a hard time getting some folks to believe that. Perfect human justice is merely even-steven. Divine justice, bounded by mercy, goes way beyond just deserts.

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 8:1-9; Matthew 5:43-48 (366). “But I say to you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you.”

MEMORIAL OF ROMUALD, ABBOT
Get some expert advice
Saint Romuald lived from the first millennium into the second. He likewise bridged the world of monastic prayer and the rest of the world by showing that ordinary experiences are examples of how to relate to God. He said, for example, “Sit in your cell as in paradise. Put the whole world behind you and forget it”—perhaps anticipating today’s “turn off your cell phone and television.” He said, “Watch your thoughts like a good fisherman watching for fish,” suggesting that if you know how to fish—be silent, still, and wait for the fish to make themselves known—then you know how to pray. A great saint can point us to holiness in simple, commonplace ways.

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 8:6-11; Matthew 6:1-6, 16-18 (367). “Your Father who sees what is hidden will repay you.”

Needs need testing
Perhaps you’ve heard the saying: “God doesn’t need our prayers—we do.” God knows what we need even before we ask. Truth be told, often enough we don’t really know what we need, only what we want. They aren’t always the same thing, as another popular saying reminds us: “Be careful what you pray for, you just might get it!” So we pray for what we want, and God sees to it that we get what we really need, and later, we realize God was right, again—thank God!

MEMORIAL OF ALOYSIUS GONZAGA, RELIGIOUS
Earthen treasures
Young Aloysius Gonzaga intentionally walked away from his family’s wealth and power, choosing to join the Society of Jesus, the Jesuits. Gonzaga lived such an extreme life of prayer and self-denial that his superiors told him to eat more and spend increased time with friends. While studying theology in Rome when a plague broke out, he volunteered to care for the sick in a Jesuit hospital. That sacrifice eventually claimed his life at the tender age of 23. Give thanks for the friends who stand by you and renew you in times of joy and of struggle—the real treasure in your life.

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 11:18, 21-30; Matthew 6:19-23 (369). “Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and decay destroy . . . but store up treasures in heaven.”

MEMORIALS OF JOHN FISHER, BISHOP, AND THOMAS MORE, MARTYRS
Be a believer for all seasons
Fisher and More, who were friends, were executed (in 1535) within 15 days of one another over their opposition to King Henry VIII’s divorce of Catherine of Aragon and his plans to take over the church in England. On the scaffold More described himself as the “king’s good servant—but God’s first.” The film version of More’s life, A Man for All Seasons, won six Oscars, including Best Picture. Watch the movie and give some thought to how you can put God first in your life.

TODAY’S READINGS: 2 Corinthians 12:1-10; Matthew 6:24-34 (370). “Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing?”
