“Pastor’s Weekend Message”

“Let my prayer come into your presence; incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.” Psalm 88 (87):3

In today’s Gospel, Jesus contrasts the behavior of the rich people with a poor widow. He used the occasion of people depositing donations in the Temple treasury to point out to the disciples a very important lesson about true love. According to Jesus, it meant nothing for the people who had great wealth to give large amounts to the treasury. They were, in effect, giving from what they had left over. In contrast though, the poor widow, who was among the poorest, gave all she had to live on. We don’t know what became of her, but she had great trust to be able to share despite her uncertain future. Jesus tells us that she gave from the little she had. It was a real act of generosity, a real act of love. How generous are we with our resources, our time, our treasure or the gifts and talents that the Lord has bestowed on us? Christianity is about giving back, sharing with those in need, loving our neighbor and trusting that God will take care of us. Sometimes our love can be a selfish love. We receive, but we don’t give anything back. Do we really TRUST in God’s providence for us? We must love in a spirit of sacrifice. The Gospel challenges us to give more of ourselves out of love for the Lord and others. Little things given out of selfless love shows to true face of love. Let us be generous in all that we have for the Lord will reward us with greater blessings. I ask you to continue to be generous with your gifts for Holy Family and our community. As we prepare for the Year of Mercy, let us continue to pray for all in need of God’s mercy, reconciliation, forgiveness and love.

Blessings in the Lord, Fr Juan, Pastor

El Milagro del Tepeyac y el Proyecto Liberador de Dios

Es necesario preguntarnos si el encuentro entre Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe y San Diego es para nosotros/as y nuestras comunidades simplemente una fecha que celebra un milagro en el siglo 16 o sigue teniendo un mensaje liberador hoy. Este tema nos proporcionará el espacio para adentrarnos en el proceso teológico que establece Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe con Juan Diego con el fin de aprender a imitar su pedagogía en nuestros hogares, comunidades y ministerios.
