Love is the focus of today’s readings. Jesus called us to love to the fullness. We know that at times it is very difficult to love all things happening in today’s world, but no matter what, we must face the call to love with a sacrificial heart like how the Lord teaches us. Love brings life, unity, peace and hope. Never to forget that love teaches us to embrace suffering with confidence. In a way, we are all in need of love: we ought to love personally and others as well are called to love us. All in all, this action and decision creates a mutual respect and self giving for the sake of love. God’s love is unconditional and yet our love, although finite, ought to be unconditional, life-giving and unselfish. To love with joy is the message of the Gospel of Mercy. Loving the suffering, improvised, marginalized, threatened, unwanted, rejected, vulnerable and destitute is true Christian love. Listen today to God’s example of love. Jesus is the loving answer that we need in today’s uncharitable climate. We need His Presence to bring about peace, justice, joy and love. Love then is not just a “word” it is a “personal action.” Have a blessed Sunday. Pray with me for all of those who will receive the sacrament of Confirmation this Sunday.

Peace and blessings in the Lord,

Father Juan Serna S.T.L., Holy Family Pastor

ENCOURAGE (NEW SUPPORT GROUP)

Encourage is a Roman Catholic apostolate for parents, friends and family members of loved ones with same-sex attractions. It is a faithful witness to Catholic teaching on sexual morality which meets the needs of its members with charity and compassion. It does not embrace the necessity of changing a loved one’s sexual attraction to seek support from our ministry. It helps members to focus on their own spiritual development with the goals of achieving peace and complete trust in God’s Providence and His Love for us and the ones we love. Encourage offers a supportive, confidential environment to share feelings, experiences, information and guidance for maintaining healthy relationships with our loved ones with same-sex attractions. It provides members with an understanding of their needs and assists members to reach out to their loved ones with true compassion. Be welcomed by a group of committed Catholics who understand your sufferings and who will walk and pray with you on this journey. To confidentially inquire about meetings, please call (209) 425-1679.
