“Pastor’s Weekend Message”

“My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another as I have loved you, so you also should love one another.” (Jn 13:34)

Love is the focus of today’s readings. Jesus calls us to love to the fullness. We know that at times it is very difficult to love all things happening in today’s world, but no matter what, we must face the call to love with a sacrificial heart like how the Lord teaches us. Love brings life, unity, peace and hope. Never to forget that love teaches us to embrace suffering with confidence. In a way, we are all in need of love: we ought to love personally and others are as well called to love us. All in all, this action and decision creates a mutual respect and self giving for the sake of love. God’s love is unconditional and yet our love, although infinite, ought to be unconditional, life-giving and unselfish. To love with joy is the message of the Gospel of mercy. Loving the suffering, improvised, marginalized, threatened, unwanted, rejected, vulnerable and destitute is true Christian love. Listen to today’s example of God’s love. Jesus is the loving answer that we need in today’s uncharitable climate. We need His presence to bring about peace, justice, joy and love. Love then is not just a “word” it is a “personal action.” Have a blessed Sunday. Pray with me for all those who are to receive the sacrament of it is a “personal action.” Have a blessed Sunday. Pray with me for all those who are to receive the sacrament of it is a “personal action.” Have a blessed Sunday. Pray with me for all those who are to receive the sacrament of it is a “personal action.” Have a blessed Sunday. Pray with me for all those who are to receive the sacrament of it is a “personal action.” Have a blessed Sunday. Pray with me for all those who are to receive the sacrament of it is a “personal action.” Have a blessed Sunday. Pray with me for all those who are to receive the sacrament of.

MESSAGE PASTORAL DEL PARROCO

“Hijitos, todavía estaré un poco con ustedes. Les doy un mandamiento nuevo: que se amen unos a los otros, como yo los he amado” Jn 13:34

El amor es el enfoque de las lecturas de hoy. Jesús nos llama ha amar hasta el extremo. Ya sabemos que es difícil amar todas las cosas que suceden en nuestro mundo de hoy, pero aun así nos encontramos con el llamado ha amar con un corazón lleno de sacrificios personales como lo hizo el Señor Jesús. El amor da vida, paz, y esperanza. De un forma u otro, todos estamos necesitados del amor: debemos amar personalmente y los demás también son llamados ha amarnos. De todo y en todo, esta acción crea un respeto mutuo y un auto donación por el motivo del amor. Mano a mano el sufrimiento va con el amor. El amor de Dios es incondicional y nuestro amor, aunque finito, tiene también que ser incondicional, dador de vida, e in egoísta. El amar el sufrimiento, empobrecimiento, marginación, el amenazado, el rechazado, el vulnerado y destituido es verdadero amor Cristiano. El gozo del amor se refleja en el amor de Cristo misericordioso por su Iglesia. Escucha el ejemplo del amor de Dios hoy. Jesús es la respuesta amorosa que necesitamos en todo clima anticaricativo de hoy. Necesitamos su Presencia para traer paz, justicia, gozo y amor. Así pues el “Amor” no solo es una palabra, es un “acción personal”. Oremos por todos los jóvenes quienes el 21 de mayo recibirán el sacramento de la Confirmación. Que tengan un feliz domingo.

Bendiciones en el Señor,

Padre Juan Serna, Párroco
