“Pastor’s Weekend Message”

We light our third Advent Candle: color Rose (joy and gladness in the Lord). Rejoice Holy Family! Rejoice with the whole Church! Our Savior is coming soon. On this Sunday, fill your hearts with wonder and awe for our Salvation is at hand. Let us be aware of God’s everlasting promises and the surprising call to joy. This week, we light our rose candle reminding us that we are more than halfway during Advent. Our repentance and conversion period turns, now into waiting in joy and rejoicing in expectation for Jesus is coming soon. Are you ready and prepared to receive Jesus with joy? There is a good reason for this season: the baby Jesus. Therefore, we, must rejoice and be glad this week “for all things are possible for God”. This past Thursday (December 12) we celebrated the Solemnity and Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe. Five-hundred years ago, through Christ, our Lady brought hope and freedom to the whole “New Word”, the Americas. Over all, the Guadalupan apparition’s message is one of hope, faith and life. Through her apparition and image, she brought many people to conversion from being a pagan world to be a more Christian world. Her message is simple, “Am I not here who am your mother?” This week, as we rejoice and accept this message during Advent, let us also give thanks here who am your mother?

“Mensaje Pastoral del Parroco”

“Estad siempre alegres en el Señor; os lo repito, estad alegres. El Señor está cerca” (Filipenses 4, 4, 5) ¡Regocijate Sagrada Familia! ¡Regocijate con toda la Iglesia! Puesto Nuestro Salvador, ya viene pronto. En este domingo, llenemos nuestros corazones de maravilla y estupor pues nuestra Salvación esta ya mas cerca. Estemos, pues, atentos a sus promesas duraderas y su llamado sorprendente al gozo. El tiempo de arrepentimiento y conversión ahora se convierte en gozo y alegría. La preparación es también para celebrarle al Señor. Hoy, encendemos nuestra vela rosa recordándonos que ya estamos más que la mitad de Adviento y que tenemos que regocijarnos porque el Señor viene pronto. ¿Acaso esta usted listo y preparado para recibirlo con alegría? Bien sabe que solo hay una sola razón para esta estación: la persona de Jesús Cristo. Por eso hoy tenemos que regocijarnos y alegrarnos porque “todas las cosas son posibles para Dios”. Este pasado jueves (12 de diciembre) también celebramos la solemnidad y fiesta de Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe. Nuestra Señora trajo a Jesucristo al “Nuevo Mundo”, las Américas, hace quinientos años. Su mensaje es de esperanza, fe y vida. Por medio de su imagen, trajo a mucha gente a la conversión de fe: de un mundo pagano a un mundo más Cristiano. Su mensaje es sencillo: “¿Acaso no estoy yo aquí que soy tu madre?” Hoy al alegrarnos y al aceptar el mensaje de Adviento, agradecemos a María porque su “Sí” a Dios, ella nos dio a nuestro Salvador Jesucristo, su Hijo Amado - el Hijo de Dios. Nuestra Señora de Guadalupe, nuevo adviento, rogad por nosotros. ¡Alegrense y Regocijense!

Bendiciones. Padre Juan, párroco Sagrada Familia
