

"Eucharist" by Bishop Barron Study

Opening Prayer

All praise and honor to you our Lord. We are most grateful for the grace you have given to each us to gather here today, to study your most holy sacrament, the Eucharist. We are grateful too for the understanding and wisdom that we pray to come our way. We ask the Holy Spirit to guide each of us closer to holiness, as we read, study, question, and share the words of Bishop Barron in his book, "Eucharist".

May our fellowship tonight be a prayer in uniting all of us more fully to your heart dear Lord.

Amen.

Closing Prayer

Thank you Lord for this time spent together as a community. We come together and praise you during Mass and we come together with our prayers and our studies. We know and we believe in the Real Presence. We call out to You Our Lord and Our God. Continue to lead us through that narrow gate. We will obey.

Amen.
