PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Borrowed from Paul Turner

Share and Share Alike

Share and share alike. One of the first lessons we learn in life is the importance of sharing what we have. Whether we receive freely or give freely, sharing bring happiness to all involved.

When the first Christians formed a community, they shared everything they owned. The followers of Jesus were not content with a personal relationship with their Savior. They craved a personal relationship with the community of believers.

Some believers had more than others. Those who owned property or houses sold them and gave the proceeds to the leaders, who distributed the money to those who needed it. Those who had more realized they could live with less. Those who had less got what they needed to live.

Today many Christians feel good if we tithe. If we give ten percent of what we earn to charities, we feel like we've done our part.

The first Christians did more. Much more. They gave until everyone in their community had the same. Share and share alike.

Do you have more than you need of something? What would it take for you to give it away? All the early church needed was faith.

Fr. John

THANK YOU TO THE PASSION PLAY-ERS 2018

A heartfelt "Thank You" is extended to all the "Passion Play-ers" who volunteered so much time in practice so as to present a moving dramatic presentation of the Palm Sunday Gospel this weekend. We were blessed with "newcomers," and veterans, including angels, disciples and some members who played more than one role, in order to make the presentation meaningful. "Divine Providence" answered our prayers that all potential cast members would come to final practices so as to complete our casts.

Our sincere thanks to Tom Roy, our music director, for his patience in working with us at dress rehearsal and during each Mass, and for critiques of our performances at rehearsal.

A special thank you to our costume-er, Luisa Ruscetta, whose work made us look appropriately "reverential."

We thank our "angels" and their families for allowing them to participate and make our presentation more Reverential.

Also, a special thanks to Linda and Mike Latour, and Joe Sabetta, our Sunday Morning cooks, who provided us with much food to sustain us through three Masses on Sunday morning. May all have a blessed Easter and we look forward to seeing all of you returning next year.
