PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Borrowed from Paul Turner

Undoing Sin

A good word-processing program has an "undo" function. If you hit the wrong key, or accidentally wipe out a paragraph you've been working on, you can hit "undo". It will bring you back to where you were just before you made your mistake. You have to catch your mistake right away, but if you do, you can undo.

How we wish life came with an "undo" function. There are words, sentences, paragraphs and entire days we'd like to undo in our past. Even if we catch them right away, it is hard to undo all the damage done by our sins.

When someone says, "I forgive you," the news is hard to believe. When someone offers to undo us from the mess we've created, the news refreshes like spring rain.

Jesus forgives. This is some of the good news that comes from Easter. In dying for us and rising from the dead, Jesus offers forgiveness for our past. He invites us to the same journey he has traveled, from death to life. He symbolizes it by taking us on the journey from sin to forgiveness.

John writes in a letter, "If anyone does sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous one. He is expiation for our sins."

Some of the people we have hurt may find it hard to forgive us, but Jesus is ready. What can he do? He can undo.

Remember the words of Jesus, remember all that he has done in our lives. Let us not forget his words and his works, otherwise we will lose hope and become “hopeless” Christians.
 Let us instead remember the Lord, his goodness and his life-giving words which have touched us. Let us remember them and make them ours, to be sentinels of the morning who know how to help others see the signs of the Risen Lord.

Remember the Words of Jesus

Know Jesus

in the breaking of the bread....

One woman complained to a friend that she couldn't remember anything from one day to the next.

"Let me get this straight," he said. "You can't remember anything from one day to the next. How long has this been going on?"
She said, "How long has what been going on?"

Even if your memory is perfect, it may still help to focus on the few things you really need to remember. This list, compiled from several sources, may be all you really need to remember.

- . Remember that your presence is a gift (a present) to the world.
- . Remember that you are a unique and unrepeatable being.
- . Remember that you are still becoming what you will be.
- . Remember to relax; each day just comes one at a time.
- . Remember to count your blessings, not your troubles.
- . Remember that you have sufficient courage to face whatever comes along.
- . Remember that most of the answers you need are within you.
- . Remember that decisions are too important to leave to chance.
- . Remember to always reach for the best that is within you.
- . Remember that nothing wastes more energy than worry.
- . Remember that not getting what you want is sometimes a wonderful stroke of luck.
- . Remember that the longer you carry a grudge, the heavier it gets.
- . Remember not to take things too seriously; there's always reason to laugh.
- . Remember that happiness is more often found in giving than getting.
- . Remember that life's greatest treasures are people, not things.
- . Remember that a little love goes a long way.
- . Remember that a lot goes forever.
