PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Borrowed from Paul Turner

God's Story

Every family has its own unique story. Some speak of the immigration of their forebears. Others trace their ancestry back many generations within the place where they live. Some have endured great hardship. Others have received countless blessings. Every family has stories that make it different from every other family.

On his way to the Promised Land, Moses reminded his people of their story. They used to live in Egypt, but by many signs and wonders, and by war, they left their place of slavery and stood poised to enter a new home. They shared ancestry, persecution, victory, freedom, and a long journey. Those events had made them the unique family they now were.

But there was something more about their story. God played a central role. God spoke to them. God claimed them. God worked the wonders that brought them freedom. They could not tell their own family story without also telling a story of God.

Trinity Sunday celebrates our belief in God. God has played a central role in our story, too. When you review the history of your family, where has God been active? How has God shown power and presence? How has God shown love?

We must ask the Lord to grant us the Holy Spirit and to grant us the gift of Wisdom, that wisdom of God that teaches us to see with God’s eyes, to feel with God’s heart, to speak with God’s words. And so, with this wisdom, let us go forward, let us build our family, let us build our Church, and we will all be sanctified.

From The Blessing of Family: Inspiring Words from Pope Francis

MR. ROB MANZO

We are ALL God's children

"The Lord has redeemed all of us, all of us, with the Blood of Christ: all of us, not just Catholics. Everyone!
 'Father, even the atheists?' YES even the atheists. Everyone!
 And this Blood makes us children of God of the first class! We are created children in the likeness of God and the Blood of Christ has redeemed us all!
 So we all have a duty to do good.
 And this commandment for everyone to do good, I think, is a beautiful path towards peace.
 If we are, each doing our own part, if we do good to others, if we meet there, doing good, and we go slowly, gently, little by little, we will make that culture of encounter: we need that so much.

We must meet one another doing good. And so do good: we will meet one another there.

Pope Francis 2013

Too Short to Be Saved

After his grandfather's death, Donald Hall, once the poet laureate of New Hampshire, went into his grandfather's attic and found many, many boxes, one of which was filled with short pieces of string.

The box was marked in an old hand: STRING TOO SHORT TO BE SAVED. He was astonished.

The box of string had caught him completely off-guard.

And from his off-guardedness and unguardedness, he was able to write a beautiful poem.

The poem states the obvious: his grandfather had saved the string that was too short to be saved. If you have ever felt like you were a string too short to be saved, you can begin to come to know what it means to be accepted by God, in Jesus Christ.

God will save us all in a great attic. Nothing is ever lost to God. Nothing. Not a single dead child. Not a single person who dies in a traffic accident. Not a single person who drowns in the floods of a hurricane. Not a single woman who dies of breast cancer. Not a single homeless person. Not an estranged spouse. Not a wayward child. No one is lost to God.

We will each appear too short to be saved many, many times in our lives. And God will still save us.
