Give glory to our God and call upon His name!PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Borrowed from Paul Turner

Food for the Journey

The reason Elijah was hungry is that he was traveling through the desert. The reason he was traveling through the desert is that Jezebel was chasing him. The reason Jezebel was chasing him is that she wanted to kill him. The reason she wanted to kill him is that Elijah had just embarrassed the priests of Baal, whose god couldn't send rain on command and Elijah's God could.

God got him into this mess, and at one point, Elijah gave up. He sat exhausted in the desert and prayed for death. God gave him a snack instead.

An angel appeared with cake and water. It doesn't sound like much, but on the strength of that food, Elijah walked forty days and forty nights more. Then he climbed the mountain of God. There, he discovered God, not in the wind, earthquake, or fire, but in silence.

On days when we would like to give up, when we can't figure out the mess we are in, when we wish for more useful companions, when we feel hungry and lost, God finds us. In the simplest of meals, we receive strength to meet God at last on the holy mountain of life, shrouded in silence.

Fr. John

From all eternity, God has known the persons he created us to be, and knows us better than anyone else. Our greatest responsibility is to allow his Spirit to form us according to the divine plan. The full abundant life Jesus promises will only come about to the extent that we become the person God desires us to be. We must always yield to God. This is what it means to die to self. Only this will allow his work to reach its completion. Whenever we try to take control and tell the Lord who we think we should become, we end up discouraged and disappointed, and we may eventually even come to resent God. — from Prayer Everywhere: The Spiritual Life Made Simple

Changes

Today I pray that I may understand there are just some things I cannot change:
I cannot change the weather.
I cannot change the tick of the clock.
I cannot change the past.
I cannot change another person against his or her will.
I cannot change what is right and wrong.
I cannot change the fact that a relationship ended.
I can stop worrying over that which I cannot change and enjoy living more! I can place those things into the loving hands of God. Save energy. Let go.
Instead of trying to change someone else:
I can change my attitude.
I can change my list of demands and priorities.
I can change my bad habits into good ones.
I can move from the place of brokenness into wholeness, in the beautiful person God created me to become.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Our prayer shawl ministry is in full swing. Because it is an ongoing ministry, we always need more shawls, mini prayer cloths and people to knit or crochet them. This is an open invitation to our new parishioners from Holy Cross and St. Brigid's church to join in this worthwhile project.

Any parishioner who would like a shawl or mini prayer cloth for themselves, a loved one or a friend, please contact Carolyn, 231-5864 or Marge 231-5276 and we will leave them in the Vestry of the church (small room to left when you walk in) with your name on them.

A big thank you goes out to the parishioner who donated 50 beautifully knitted scarfs for the homeless. The need is great for hats, scarfs, neck warmers, neck cowls and afghans. We have received many of these items this past year and donated them to Catholic outreach programs that help the homeless.

For those of you who want to get involved but do not knit or crochet, you can donate yarn, as one parishioner did (thank you), or make a monetary donation to the ministry.

In the future, we will display some of the finished products along with their instructions. If you want to get started right away, check out patterns for prayer shawls on the internet at AllFreeKnitting.com. For the mini prayer cloths look at southernbellecrochet.com.

When you drop off items, please include your name and address.

If you have any questions, call Carolyn or Marge at the above numbers!
