 has been done in true judgement!

PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Borrowed from Paul Turner

You Are What You Eat

You are what you eat. People who reflect on their diet learn a lot about themselves. They discover their passions and temptations. They learn what they will not tolerate and what they cannot avoid. They discover the effect their choice of food has on others. It may hurt the family farmer and help global distributors.

People who do not eat healthy food pay a price more dear than the grocery bill. You are what you eat.

The Book of Proverbs envisions divine Wisdom as a woman who has prepared a lavish meal. She has built a house and spread a table within it. She invites to this table not those who are hungry for physical food, but those who are simple. Those who lack understanding may come to this meal.

Those who dine at Wisdom's table nourish their mind, not their belly.

The meal we share at church is small: a bit of bread, a sip of wine. But this food and drink is much more. It is the Body and Blood of Christ, the source of all wisdom.

When we make the Eucharist a part of our lives, we grow in wisdom. We make room for God.

When we eat the bread of life, we become what we eat. We are the Body of Christ.

Fr. John

God Bless

If we are going to live in this land where it is so easy to be consumed by the culture, we have to teach the faith to our children. If we do not, they will be annihilated by what Saint John Paul II called a “culture of death” by an enemy who never sleeps. All that is needed for evil to prosper is for good to do nothing. We cannot be silent while negative influences deceive our children and our families.

All Are Welcome!!

In any church service the congregation preaches more than half the sermon. The congregation brings an atmosphere with it. (William Barclay)

So the question is:

What kind of atmosphere do we create for those visitors among us?

Glad you are here?

Why are you taking my seat?

Welcome to our family?

Hello, my name is?

“To be guided by a Christian way of life, with a strong spiritual life and working for the kingdom, means letting oneself be shaped by the love of Jesus, having His same sentiments, asking every day:

What have I done for Christ? What am I doing for Christ? What ought I to do for Christ?”

POPE FRANCIS
