Thirty-first Sunday In Ordinary Time

November 4, 2018

The Lord lives!
 Blessed be my rock!

PASTOR'S COMMENTS

Borrowed from Paul Turner

Words to Live By

A lot of us have words to live by. Our parents and their parents have handed down bits of wisdom that help us throughout our lives. Play fair. Try your best. Learn from your mistakes.

You probably have special words you live by. When something goes wrong, you might have some saying that helps you get through. When you rejoice with friends, words of thanksgiving may spring from your heart. When you face a major decision in life, you might fall back on the wisdom you have learned from others.

Perhaps you have these words of wisdom enshrined somehow. Maybe they are framed on your wall. Perhaps they hang from a banner. You might even carry them with you at all times. When you need your words, they are there for you.

When Moses received the covenant, God gave him some special words to live by. There were too many words for anyone to remember all of them. So God gave a few words for Israel to hear and remember.

"You shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength."

Those are the words that can guide us all our days.

Fr. John

Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good. Yours are the hands through which he blesses all the world. Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are his body. Christ has no body now on earth but yours.” (St. Teresa of Avila, 16th century)
