Second Sunday
of Easter (Divine Mercy)

April 28, 2019

Give thanks to God, for His mercy endures!

Borrowed from Paul Turner

Christ's Offer of Life and Healing

If you kept a good Lent this year, you have experienced death and rebirth in your spiritual life. If you celebrated the sacrament of reconciliation before Easter this year, you have acknowledged your sin and experienced forgiveness. You have been healed.

One of the first signs of the resurrection was healing. After Jesus rose from the dead, his apostles inherited many of his gifts. They preached powerful sermons. They forgave sins. They healed the sick. People placed the sick on the streets so that Peter's shadow would fall on them as he walked by. Faith was strong. God's Spirit was stronger.

Now that this year's Easter has come, the healing power of God's Holy Spirit will be at work within you. At the Easter Vigil you renewed your baptismal promises. You recommitted yourself to Christ. Now in the Easter season, Christ will recommit himself to you. You bask for fifty days in the glow of glory.

Perhaps you have experienced doubt. Perhaps you wondered if the old you can become a new you. On Ash Wednesday you admitted the sickness of your sin and sought the medicine of Lent. Perhaps now you wonder if the new you will stick. Or will it relapse?

The full grace of this season is yours to receive. The risen Christ stands in glory above the tomb. He offers new life and healing.

Come Home

When we realize that the road we have been following may not be the one that is best for us, we must have the humility to admit that we have strayed, that we have been mistaken, that God knows better than we the life that will lead us to him. Nothing is more difficult than admitting that we have failed, that we have sinned. We feel haunted by the past. No matter how willing we are to do penance and suffer and take on the heavy burden of our guilt, in the end the greatest humility is accepting the role the Lord has written for us.

All that the Lord asks is that we come home. We must accept our roles as daughters and sons and not refuse this great gift of love. We are all children of the Father, we have all sinned, but we are all welcome in our Father’s house. We must live as a forgiving and as a forgiven people.

Community Outreach Ministry

Homeless Ministry

Thank you all for your wonderful response to our men's and women's white sock drive. We will continue collecting these socks until Easter. We have far surpassed our goal of 100 pair. I will give a total count after the sock drive ends.

To all those who gave warm clothing, hats, scarfs, afghans and other goods to the homeless and poor, thank you for your generosity.

To the volunteers who knit and crochet hats, scarfs, afghans, lap blankets and prayer shawls, please continue with this ministry.

St Robert's is a wonderful, giving community.

If anyone would like a prayer shawl or lap blanket for themselves, a family member or a friend, please contact Carolyn at 231-5864 or Marge at 231-5276.

-- And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.' Mathew 25:40
