Cry to God with shouts of joy!

Borrowed from Paul Turner

Owning Christ

Most people save stuff. We are packrats. We save clothes that have not fit for years. We save computer files we may never look at again. When we run out of closets at home, we rent additional space to store things.

Once in a while we have a garage sale to thin down our possessions. But we rarely hear of anyone getting rid of everything in order to start over again.

When Elisha agreed to follow Elijah as his attendant, he left his livelihood as a farmer. He broke up the yoke he steered for plowing and used it to fuel a fire. He slaughtered his oxen and used the fire to boil their flesh. He served the flesh to his people to eat. Elisha left nothing behind.

To be a follower of Christ, we must be prepared to travel light. Our possessions may distract us from keeping Christ as the center of our being. We may also be distracted by too many interests, too many commitments, too much food, or too much play. When Elisha decided to follow Elijah, he broke up, burned up, and cooked up everything he owned. When we decide to follow Christ, we will leave some things behind.

It will not feel right at first. It is hard to let go of the things of our past. We are packrats. But the future is glorious if Christ is all we own.

Jesus Is With Us

As Catholic Christians we believe that our Savior is truly present in the Eucharist. Each time we come before our God in adoration and prayer, we acknowledge the offering that Jesus gave us—his life, our liberation. We come before our God knowing that God is present before us and that God loves each one of us. Consider then, as we gaze upon the Blessed Sacrament, our belief in our Savior and the power of prayer. “Again, truly I tell you, if two of you agree on earth about anything you ask, it will be done for you by my Father in heaven” (Matthew 18:19). Prayer is not passive but active. When we pray, we allow ourselves to surrender and trust that God is with us in our hearts, present in the Eucharist and present in the world.
